The Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood has been called to meet in New York next Tuesday, to take action on the present condition of the Irish movement. It is authoritatively stated that both Senators and the organization they represent, will fulfill the promises made by President Roberts in their name to extend all aid in their power to the Irish Republicans in the field.

The committee appointed to investigate the matter report that the fact of collusion and fraud in the sale of the Iron Mountain Railroad in Missouri, so far as such fact can be proved outside of Court, is fairly deducible, and that Commissioners Farrar and Watt, and Governor Fletcher, should be held responsible in the matter, and the sale of the road declared void.

A Harrisburg dispatch states that Gov. Geary, at the solicitation of the spiritual advisers of Alex. Wylie, sentenced to be hung next Friday, granted a respite until March 21st.

ONE O'CLOCK, A. M.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Allegheny Mayoralty Term Extended.

PROPOSED DIVISION OF PITTSBURGH INTO FOUR POLICE DISTRICTS.

Bill to Annex Reserve Township to Allegheny City.

CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD BILL.

Morning Hour Spent in Discussion,

FINAL VOTE TO BE TAKEN TO-DAY.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, March 13, 1867.

SENATE.

The following bills were passed:

Allowing the Mayor of Allegheny to serve for two years.

Authorizing the sale of the Allegheny Poor Farm.

A supplement to an act incorporating the M'Keesport Gas Works.

A supplement to an act to incorporate the Pittsburgh and Arizona Mining Company.

To allow the Pittsburgh and Perrysville Plank Road Company to fix rates of tolls, and transfer a portion of their road.

An act relative to the purchase of a Law Library in Washington county.

An act relative to the fees of certain officers in Beaver county.

An act giving additional powers to the Councils of Pittsburgh.

To allow Methodist Book Concern to hold property in Pittsburgh.

A resolution for final adjournment on April 3d.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. McKee read in place an act to divide the city of Pittsburgh into four police districts.

Mr. Peters: An act to incorporate the Western Pennsylvania Military Academy; also, to annex Reserve township to Allegheny city.

Mr. Chase read in place and had passed a supplement to the act to incorporate the borough of Titusville.

Mr. Wharton offered a resolution for a Joint Committee to find out what banks and what interest was received from monies in the State Treasury. Postponed indefinitely.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The act to restore the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad charter.

Mr. Jenks opened the discussion, making one of the greatest logical arguments in favor of the restoration that has been heard on that question.

Mr. Lee called for the previous question. The House refused on second call.

Mr. Mann followed in favor of the act.

Mr. Boyle spoke for an hour, going over the repeal of the charter, showing clearly that the reasons were false, that the road should not be further embarrassed and that the bill should pass.

The morning hour was consumed by the speeches of Messrs. Jenks, Mann and Boyle.

The following public bills were passed:

Supplement to the election laws for opening polls at eight o'clock, excepting in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

On the bill making it an offense to exclude persons from railroad cars on account of color, the previous question was called and sustained, the Republicans voting in favor, and Democrats against. The bill passed to a third reading.

The act to change the rate of interest passed a third reading.

EVENING SESSION.

The House resumed the consideration of the Connellsville Railroad bill.

Mr. Boyle again, in an hour's speech, argued that the construction of the road would not militate against Philadelphia, for the reason that the road would create a draw of trade on Pittsburgh, giving the Pennsylvania Railroad as much as it could do, and if so, Philadelphia had no right to make another section suffer. The State at large should not suffer. Referring to the judicial proceedings, he said a member of the House was on the jury at the time, (Mr. Kinney, of Bradford,) and asked how, after rendering a verdict under oath, he could vote against the bill. He referred to the great advantages which would accrue to the State by the development of the Southwestern Railroad. He stated that property had risen from thirty dollars to five hundred dollars per acre since the construction of the portion to Uniontown. He denounced the policy of confining railroads to passage through the State, comparing such policy to that of the Chinese. He closed by appealing to the House to pass the bill and open up a route between the West and the capital, and strengthen the Union.

Mr. Colville followed in a few remarks.

The bill is still being discussed. By agreement there will be a final vote to-morrow.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

(FIRST SESSION.)

Supplementary Reconstruction Bill.

SOUTHERN DESTITUTION MATTER.

House Does Not Concur in the Appropriation of $1,000,000.

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1867.

SENATE.

TERRITORIES AND THE BANKRUPT BILL.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Judiciary Committee, reported adversely on the bill conferring on Territorial Courts jurisdiction under the Bankrupt Bill.

Mr. TRUMBULL said the law, as passed, confers sufficient jurisdiction on these Courts.

The bill was indefinitely postponed.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. MORGAN, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a joint resolution directing the survey for a ship canal between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. Passed.

Mr. YATES introduced a bill to provide for the Circuit and District Courts for the District of Nebraska. Referred.

Mr. STEWART introduced a bill to establish a Land Office and create the office of Surveyor General of Utah. Referred.

Mr. TRUMBULL introduced a resolution inquiring of the Secretary of the Treasury how many persons were employed in the assessment of direct taxes in the rebel States, how much was paid them, and whether their services cannot be dispensed with. Agreed to.

SUPPLEMENTARY RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

Mr. TRUMBULL reported from the Judiciary Committee the following substitute for the House supplementary Reconstruction bill, and asked its immediate consideration.

Mr. HOWARD objected and it goes over under the rules.

An act supplementary to an act entitled an act to provide for more efficient means of restoring the rebel States, passed March 2d, 1867, and to facilitate restoration:

Be it enacted, &c., That before the 1st day of September, 1867, the Commanding General in each district, defined by an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2d, 1867, shall cause registration to be made of male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed to the following oath or affirmation:

"——, of ——, in the county or parish, ——, of State of ——, do hereby solemnly swear or affirm, that I am not excluded from the right to vote by the 5th and 6th sections of said act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, that I will support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and that I will, to the best of my ability, encourage all others to do the same. So help me God." Which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registry office.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State, at such time and place therein as the commanding General shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty days' public notice shall be given, an election shall be held for delegates to a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for each State loyal to the Union; said Convention, in each State except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature in such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties or precincts of such State by the commanding General, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The Convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That the commanding General of such district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return of the votes, and a list and returns of persons elected as delegates by plurality of votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns, he shall open the same, ascertain the position of the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make a proclamation thereof, and within sixty days from the date of the election he shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention, at the time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall first determine by vote whether it is the wish of the people of such State to frame a constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act and the act to which it is supplementary. If so, it shall proceed to frame such constitution, and when the same shall have been so framed, said constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to persons under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding General, as herein before provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the notice thereof, to be given by the said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding General of the District.

SEC. 4. That if according to said returns the Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the electors qualified, as herein specified, the President of the Convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit it to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session then immediately upon its next assembling; and if said Constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives be admitted therefrom as therein provided.

SEC. 5. That all elections in the States mentioned in said act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot, and all officers making said registration of voters, and conducting said elections, shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, take and subscribe to an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862 entitled an act to prescribe an oath of office.

SEC. 6. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding Generals, or by virtue of any orders issued, or appointments made by them under and by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 7. That the Convention for each State shall prescribe fees, salary and compensation, to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized, or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein or otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levies and collections, and levies on property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

ARMS FOR TENNESSEE.

Mr. WILSON asked the Senate to take up the bill directing the Secretary of War to furnish arms and equipments to the Governor of Tennessee for twenty-five hundred militia, but it was subsequently agreed between Messrs. Fowler and Patterson to take it up to-morrow.

CLAIMS OF COLORED TROOPS.

Mr. WILSON called up the joint resolution relating to the settlement of claims due to colored soldiers, providing they be paid through the Commissioner of Freedmen's affairs into the Freedmen's Saving and Trust Company. After debate, re-committed to the Military Committee.

PRINTING BUREAU.

Mr. HENDERSON introduced a resolution for the appointment of a committee of three Senators to examine and report upon the conduct of the Printing Bureau of the Treasury Department, whether the same can be dispensed with or its expenses lessened; whether the safeguards are sufficient to protect the interests of the Government. Agreed to.

The Senate went into Executive Session, and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

EQUALIZATION OF BOUNTIES.

Mr. JULIAN presented a resolution of the Indiana Legislature in reference to the equalization of bounties. Referred.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, and proceeded to the business on Calendar, as follows: The House joint resolution providing that certain Missouri troops be placed on an equal footing with other volunteers as to bounties. After remarks in favor by Messrs. M'Clurg and Benjamin, and the adoption of an amendment making it apply to those borne on the roll as slaves, the joint resolution was laid aside to be reported to the House.

The Senate joint resolution presenting the thanks of Congress to Mr. Peabody.

Mr. HOWARD moved to strike out that part of the joint resolution which provides for a gold medal, to be presented to Mr. Peabody, and declared, in some remarks, that Mr. Peabody had made profit by the rebellion, and given it aid and comfort. The amendment was rejected, and the joint resolution laid aside to be reported to the House.

The Senate joint resolution for the relief of the destitute in the Southern and Southwestern States, directing the Secretary of War to issue supplies of food, sufficient to prevent starvation and extreme want among the people of all classes, and appropriating a million dollars for the purpose.

A long debate followed during which Mr. BUTLER offered a substitute, which was to strike out all after the enacting words and insert a provision appropriating one million dollars to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, in relieving the widows and children of Union soldiers starved to death in the rebel prisons of Andersonville, Salisbury, Libby, Millen and Belle Isle.

The Committee rose, without disposing of the bill, and reported back the two other bills, placing certain Missouri troops on an equal footing with others as to bounty, and presenting the thanks of Congress to Mr. Peabody, which thereupon passed.

Adjourned.

FROM MEXICO.

Expected Battle Between Maximilian and the Liberals—Excitement at Vera Cruz and City of Mexico—French Desertions.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—Matamoras advices to the 7th, say dates received from the interior of Mexico to the 25th ult., have been received at Queretaro. On that day the column under the command of Emperor Maximilian marched upon a position occupied by the Northern Republican army. The Liberal General Soien, was to make a junction with Carone's army, in Zelgia. General Porforis Diaz was near Puebla, which place was occupied by the Imperialists, under General Galvez. It is probable that the expected battle between Maximilian and the Liberals will take place before the 8th or 10th inst. Advices from Brazos to the 7th, say Cortinas is reported at Wier, with a decreasing force, all Americans and foreigners excepted. Four deserters say he has only sixty-five men.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Vera Cruz advices to March 2d, state that great excitement prevailed, and strict surveillance is placed upon the approaches to the city. It was rumored that the marines from the Austrian war vessels will be transferred to St. Juan D'Ulloa, for the protection of the city, and a sweeping conscription was expected any moment. Maximilian left his business in the hands of his counsel of Ministers on taking the field.

The garrison at the city of Mexico was continually on a run on account of the alarms from the guerillas. One thousand French troops deserted in March from the Capital to Peubla, and most of them have joined the Liberals.

Coldest of the Season.

MILWAUKEE, March 13.—To-day was the coldest of the season at St. Paul. The thermometer was 25 deg. below zero. At Madison, La Crosse and Milwaukee it was 12 deg. below this morning.

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1867.

MEXICAN INTELLIGENCE.

Extract from a letter received to-day by way of New Orleans:

"VERA CRUZ, March 1.—General Bazaine arrived to-day. The Liberals, under Saltedo, Gomez and Rodriquez, have taken Orizaba and Cordova. The Imperialists retreated to this city, but it is thought they will all desert before they reach Vera Cruz. They are very much afraid of the yellow fever. General Alatone is about Puebla. General Benavodo is three leagues from this city, with a large force. He expects to occupy Vera Cruz abandoned by the French. Communication with the interior is entirely cut off. We have no news west of Orizaba. The French are between this city and Passo del Machs. They all expect to leave early this month. Their iron-clad fleet is still here."

DEPARTMENT CHANGES.

By direction of the President the following changes are made in the Geographical Departments as now constituted: 1st, States of West Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky to constitute the Department of the Cumberland; Brigadier and Major General John Pope to command; headquarters Louisville. 2d, The counties of Alexandria and Fairfax are annexed to the command of the 1st district. 3d, The Indian Territory is attached to the Department of Missouri.

GENERAL GRANT PROMULGATES THE MILITARY BILL.

General Grant in general order No. 10, published to-day, for the information and government of all concerned, the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and concludes as follows: "In pursuance of this act, the President directs the following assignments to be made: First district, State of Virginia, to be commanded by Brevet Major General J. W. Schofield, headquarters at Richmond; Second district, consisting of North and South Carolina, to be commanded by Major General D. E. Sickles, headquarters at Columbia; Third District, consisting of the States of Georgia, Florida and Alabama, to be commanded by General G. H. Thomas, headquarters at Montgomery; Fourth District, consisting of the States of Mississippi and Arkansas, to be commanded by Brevet Major General E. O. C. Ord, headquarters at Vicksburg; Fifth District, consisting of the States of Louisiana and Texas, to be commanded by Major General P. H. Sheridan, headquarters at New Orleans. The powers of Departmental Commanders are hereby delegated to the above named District Commanders.

INTERNAL REVENUE TAXES.

The recent act changing the time of assessing annual taxes from May to March, does not affect the time for which special taxes are due. It commences and ends May 1st as heretofore, although the return and assessment is made earlier.

[Specials to yesterday's New York Papers.]

The Tribune's special says the House Committee on elections yesterday had under consideration the Colorado contested election case. They agreed to allow neither of the applicants to occupy the seat until the matter was definitely settled.

The Tribune learns from trustworthy sources that the order of General Sheridan prohibiting the holding of the municipal election in New Orleans, on March 11th, was issued under instructions from the President to suspend the election, and depose both Governor Wells and Mayor Monroe if he saw fit.

M. Tassara, for ten years Spanish Minister here, has been recalled. He will be succeeded by Senor Facundi Govie.

The President yesterday sent the nominations of Judge John S. Whittaker as District Attorney; and General Frank Herron as United States Marshal for New Orleans. There has been a great contest over these nominations.

A party now in New Orleans claims the gold belonging to the Richmond banks, and which is in the custody of Treasurer Spinner. He required them to testify to it. They asked to see it, and then they could tell whether it was theirs. Mr. Spinner thought if they could not identify it without first seeing it, their claim was a very flimsy one. They attempted a description but failed.

The Herald's Washington special says: Intelligence from Virginia intimates that the people of the State consider the passage of Mr. Wilson's bill as a great victory over the radicals, and Gov. Pierpont is reported to have said it leaves the reorganization entirely in the hands of President Johnson and his rebel friends.

Revolution in Guatemala—The War Between Buenos Ayres and Paraguay—Chili and Peru—Attempted Revolution in Bolivia.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The steamer Ocean Queen, arrived from Aspinwall to-day, bringing $345,000 in gold.

In Nicaragua, President Martinez was to surrender the chair to his successor, D. F. Guzman, on the 1st inst.

In Guatemala a revolutionary outbreak has taken place, but is not of sufficient importance to interrupt seriously the rapid progress of the Republic.

Buenos Ayres papers of January 18th, mention that an engagement is said to have ended favorably for the allies, but there were no particulars stated.

The proposition that the United States mediate between Buenos Ayres and Paraguay will be accepted by Lopez.

The Spanish fleet which left Montevideo, is thought to be destined to the Straits of Magellan, to intercept the allied fleet from Valparaiso.

The Uraguayan government, in answer to the protest of Chili and Peru for harboring Spanish vessels, stated that they only pursued a neutral course.

Nothing new from Chili.

The Peruvian Cabinet has been remodeled. The Diplomatic Asylum, as defined by the law of nations, will be the only asylum recognized by Peru hereafter.

News from Venezuela of the 7th ult., says that Alvarez had attempted a revolutionary movement in Bolivia by seizing the person of Gomez, a superior officer, but failed signally. Alvarez was arrested.

A war is imminent between Montazene and Lopez, all attempts at compromise having failed.

THE FENIANS AT CHICAGO.

Irresponsible Leaders Denounced—Proposition to the English Reformers—The Convention Adjourns.

CHICAGO, March 13.—In the Fenian State Convention to-day resolutions were passed cordially endorsing the position taken by President Roberts in his message to Geary, sent last night, pledging the Fenians of the State to co-operate with him in aiding men in the field, and expressing disapproval of the conduct of individuals without honesty or ability, who do not represent the Irish people at home or abroad, and who have precipitated the Brotherhood in Ireland into premature and unprepared revolt, by promises which they knew they were powerless to fulfill and impossible to realize. They express their determination to support the men in the field in Ireland. Resolutions were adopted, calling on the Brotherhood and lovers of liberty to contribute their means only to Fenian circles, and thus ensure their being legitimately used. The coming address will express a desire to unite with the reformers in England, if they mean Republicanism and say not the people but the Government of England is responsible for the misery in Ireland.

President Roberts telegraphs to Geary to get the Brotherhood together and call on the people for contributions; and that unity is indispensable if they would aid the people in Ireland.

The Convention completed its business and adjourned.

GREAT FLOOD IN THE OHIO.

High Water at Cincinnati.

HIGHER THAN SINCE 1856.

Thirty Miles Wide in Places.

IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF GRAIN AND STOCK.

HUNDREDS OF HOUSES INUNDATED AT CINCINNATI AND COVINGTON.

CINCINNATI, March 13.—The river at this point is higher than it has been since 1856. There are fifty-four and a half feet of water in the channel, and rising about one inch per hour. At Ripley the river raised nine inches last night. At Portsmouth five feet in twenty-four hours, and rising two inches per hour. At Wheeling there is fifteen and a half feet and rising slowly. At Marietta there is twenty feet and rising three inches per hour.

Reports from below represent a great destruction of property by the flood. In many places between New Albany and Evansville the river is thirty miles wide. Thousands of cattle, sheep and hogs have been drowned, and hundreds of thousands of bushels of grain have been lost. The country is covered with floating stacks of hay, wheat and oats. Nearly all the steamboat landings are under water, and boats cannot make a landing. Shawneetown is completely inundated. In the lower portion of Cincinnati and Covington hundreds of houses are under water.

CAIRO, March 13.—The levee near Mound City broke this morning. The breach is forty feet wide and six feet deep. The citizens are sinking a boat in the crevasse, and doing all they can to prevent the inundation of the town. The levee about Cairo is intact and believed to be capable of withstanding the flood at its maximum.

The Commercial's Knoxville dispatch says it is estimated that the late flood has damaged East Tennessee to the amount of two million dollars. Over two hundred persons were washed out of their homes in Knoxville. The damage to the farming interests was very heavy. Many of the farmers lost their houses, barns, grain and stock.

LOUISVILLE, March 13.—The river raised nine inches in the last fourteen hours, and is now within four feet of the rise of '47, and five feet of the rise of '32, and is now rising one inch per hour.

The weather is cloudy and growing cold.

FROM MISSOURI.

Finance Bill Passed—The Legislature Adjourned till May.

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., March 13.—The Finance Bill has finally passed. It places $759,000, now in the State Treasury, to the interest fund, and provides a four mill tax, which will realize $14,000, and appropriates $4,000,000 of the sum due the State by the Federal Government. These amounts will retire the present year ten overdue coupons on each bond of the State debt, which is $18,000,436, and leave a sinking fund of four hundred thousand dollars to retire the remaining coupons, or they may be funded, as the bondholders choose.

The Platte Valley, Southwest Pacific, Iron Mountain and Cairo and Fulton Railway are compelled to pay one hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars per annum to the sinking fund. The bill allowing the delinquent taxes to be paid without interest, which under the law was fifteen per cent., will add several hundred thousand dollars to the State Treasury.

ST. LOUIS, March 13.—The Legislature adjourned this afternoon until the first Tuesday in January. The weather is still very cold, the mercury being many degrees below freezing point. Heavy snows are falling in the western part of this State and in Kansas, and the weather is very cold.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

Sacramento Municipal Election—Extra Session of the Nevada Legislature—Sandwich Island Advices.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The Sacramento municipal election yesterday resulted in the success of the Union ticket by a large majority.

A Carson telegram says that the Governor will call an extra session of the Nevada Legislature to meet on the 15th inst. for the purpose of passing a Revenue law.

Sandwich Islands advices to February 23d, say the Government authorizes the Minister of Finance to depreciate Spanish reals and English six pences to the value of ten cents. American currency. The Islands were visited by abundant rains in February. The number of cases of curiosities intended for the Paris Exposition received, with those previously forwarded, it is expected will fill the department allotted for Hawaiian products.

The Virginia Military District—Gen. Schofield Assumes Command.

RICHMOND, VA., March 13.—General Schofield to-day issued an order assuming command of Virginia. He says all officers under the existing provisional government will continue to perform the duties of their respective offices according to law, unless otherwise directed, in individual cases, until successors are elected under the act of Congress. He says it is desirable that the military power be exercised, only so far as necessary, to accomplish the objects for which it was conferred, and appeals to the people, especially civil officers, to render the necessity for its exercise as slight as possible, by strict obedience to the laws and impartial administration of justice to all classes.

U. S. Senator from Maryland.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., March 13.—In Joint Convention to-day the Legislature of the State declared Hon. Philip Francis Thomas elected United States Senator for six years, to fill the existing vacancy. The Governor was directed to issue the necessary commission to the Senator elect. The registration bill has passed the Senate.

The Allegheny County Wool Growers' Association.

The Wool Growers' Association of Allegheny county held its first annual meeting yesterday morning in the room over the Prothonotary's office in the Court House. The attendance was not large. The election of officers was deferred until May.

In the absence of President Johnston, Colonel J. F. T. Wright occupied the chair.

J. McD. Glenn, the Secretary, read a letter from Gen. Moorhead, which stated that the bill passed by Congress is the same as that passed by the House of Representatives at the previous session; and that Secretary McCullough was enforcing the law which called for samples.

Various articles in advocacy of the tariff were read.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted, after which the meeting adjourned:

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves, without distinction of party, hereafter to support no man for State or National office who is not heartily in favor of protecting American industry—agricultural and mechanical.

Resolved, That we will not support any paper—agricultural or otherwise—that does not advocate American industry.

Meeting of the Allegheny Soldiers' League.

The regular weekly meeting of the Allegheny Soldiers' League was held at Malta Hall, on Federal street, Allegheny, on Tuesday evening. Adjutant Alexander P. Callow occupied the chair.

The Finance Committee reported the receipts of $25 50 from the market butchers, to be used for the benefit of the Library. They also acknowledged the receipt of five dollars from Jeremiah Kohen, Esq. Votes of thanks were unanimously tendered to the donors of the sums mentioned.

A vote of thanks was also tendered unanimously to Charles T. Ingham, Esq., member of Council from the First ward, and belonging to the firm of Ingham & Son, for a very handsome sign for the use of the League, which he had had manufactured at his carpenter shop on Martin street, and presented to the League. The sign is a very fine one, worth about fifteen dollars.

A committee of five, consisting of Alex. P. Callow, Joseph R. Oxley, Col. D. H. Williams, T. M'C. Benner and Col. T. Wickersham, was appointed to make arrangements for the grand opening of the Library.

The League then adjourned to meet again next Tuesday evening, when the nomination of officers under the new charter will take place.

The Investigating Committee.

We were informed recently, by a prominent and reliable citizen of this place, who was summoned as a witness before the Legislative Investigating Committee, which last week investigated the affairs of the Pennsylvania Railroad here, that the investigation, so far as he had the opportunity of observing, was an utter farce. The members of the Committee, he states, seemed very slightly impressed with the importance of the work in hand, and hastened through it, and slurred it over in the manner of children who have a set task to execute before going to play. The dignity and careful deliberation which should always characterize the proceedings of such bodies were wholly wanting, and such was the haste and carelessness with which they took testimony, that they refused to wait even a short time for important files and documents to be procured to substantiate some of the points alluded to in the testimony. The gent[illegible] further states that the statement [illegible]me quarters that no proof was [illegible] crimination by the Railroad [illegible] to the interests of Pitts[illegible]e out by facts; but that on [illegible]ne strong and direct testim[illegible] in, proving undeniably that [illegible]mination is exercised.

Essay Contest at the Pittsburgh Female College.

Our readers will bear in mind that the grand essay contest of the Pittsburgh Female College, will take place this evening, at the College Chapel. The contest promises to be quite exciting as many elegant essays written by the talented young lady competitors will be read, and doubtless it will be a very difficult task for the judges to decide upon the relative merits of the compositions. Rev. Dr. Kerr and Judges H. W. Williams and J. P. Sterritt are the referees, by whom the decision will be given. In addition to the literary treat offered, the musical part of the programme will be highly attractive. Prof. Rohbock, Miss Rohbock, the Messrs. Everson, Mrs Shelb and other equally talented and popular instrumental and vocal performers have kindly volunteered to assist the pupils. This affair we can safely promise will be as pleasant as any which have heretofore made the college commencements and contests so attractive, and we advise our appreciating readers to attend.

Before Justice Ammon.

We obtained the following cases at the office of Justice Ammon in East Birmingham yesterday. John Gilson made information charging Edward Villsack with assault and battery, alleging that the defendant struck him in the face. The parties are both employees at Erte's cooper shop in East Birmingham. The case was settled by defendant paying the costs.

Henry and John Stany were arrested on a charge of malicious mischief preferred by Matthias Paupt. The parties are neighbors residing in Union township, and the deponent alleges that the defendant, with malicious intent, dug a drain on their premises in such a manner as to overflow his yard with water. After the hearing the accused were held to bail in the sum of $300 each, to answer at Court.

Frederick Hampe made information against Henry Hahn for surety of the peace. It is stated that defendant threatened deponent's family with serious harm. The accused, on payment of the costs, was discharged.

Margaret Welliser was arrested at the instance of Christina Delhorn, who charged her with divers and sundry visitations at divers and sundry times. This defendant also paid the costs and was discharged.

Another surety of the peace suit was that of Mary White against Mary Haggerty and John Hanlon, of Brownstown. A warrant was issued.

Peoples' Savings Bank.

Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of the Peoples' Savings Bank, No. 77 Fourth street. Perhaps no institution has been organized under more favorable auspices than this, and that it will be liberally encouraged by all classes is beyond a doubt. It has a capital of $100,000, and its affairs are carefully managed by a Board of Trustees selected from our reliable and staunch business men, who will devote their best efforts to sustain the high reputation and character the bank has already attained. Our friend S. F. Von Bonnhorst, late Postmaster, is the Secretary and Treasurer, and the mere announcement of this fact is sufficient to win favor to the institution. Six per cent. interest is allowed upon all time deposits, and deposits of any amount are received. Investments are made in Government and real estate securities for those desiring such to be made. The bank is open for business from nine o'clock to four o'clock, and on Wednesday and Saturday nights from six to nine o'clock. We can safely commend this company to our readers.

Accident.

Yesterday morning, an accident, which came very near to resulting fatally, occurred at the Federal street crossing of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad in Allegheny. A passenger train from Pittsburgh had partially entered the depot yard, and had stopped, the rear portion of the train standing on Federal street. Archie Ritchie, the watchman at the crossing, was standing outside the gate by the train. While the cars were motionless he stepped upon one of the platforms to get to the other side of the train. Just as he had got upon the step, the train started forward and he was caught between the car and the post of the gateway. It is a great wonder that Mr. Ritchie was not instantly killed. As it was, the only injury he received was the fracturing of his left collar bone. Dr. Thorn was called and attended to the injuries of the unfortunate man.

A Surprise Visit.

Yesterday a tall man, well dressed and wearing sandy side whiskers, rang at the door of Rev. Alexander G. Clark's residence, on Fifth street. He was admitted and inquired for Mr. C. and word was sent by that gentleman that he would see the visitor in a short time. The stranger sat for a moment and then arose saying he would not wait. As he went out he took off the hat rack in the hall a handsome overcoat belonging to Mr. Clark, worth forty dollars, and carried it out with him. A little boy in the house saw the movement and at first supposed the coat belonged to the visitor. He shortly became convinced of the "mistake" the fellow had made, and gave the alarm. Officer Dressler assisted in the search for the stolen coat, and visited the various pawn shops, but without finding it.

McClure Township Nominations.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—There assembled according to public notice, on the evening of March 8th, a meeting of the citizens of McClure township, and as the proceeding were very irregular we desire to enlighten our fellow citizens upon the character of the transactions of a few interested individuals. The meeting, before any fair attendance of citizens could be obtained, organized, choosing Mr. Charles Cummings to preside, who announced business in order. Mark the sharp practice—the meeting from lack of attendance was not representative of the township—but a Committee of five was appointed to nominate township officers subject to the action of the meeting. The Committee was appointed to represent the interests of the western part of the township—we will see how well they did so. They reported a set of names, and our friend Carl immediately moved that these nominations be ratified as the unanimous action of the meeting thus effectually choking objections which might have been made, and cutting off all debate. But wisely the resolution to adopt was voted down, whereupon that wise stickler for parliamentary usages and would-be-but-couldn't-e counsel to Cork, who rests contented with an assessorship, offered a resolution to adjourn, which was almost unanimously voted down. There was then an effort to disorganize the meeting by upsetting lights and other disreputable proceedings, failing however to accomplish anything but a bolt, the "seceders and revolutionists" retiring, accompanied by the chairman. The dissatisfied party evidently felt that the public meeting did not embrace citizens of the lower parts or bottom of the township, although the printed invitation wanted all to attend.

The citizens of the lower part of the Township held quite a respectable meeting at which the following well taken subjects for complaint were recited 1st., that they had not a fair representation of Township officers; 2nd., that they had not a fair share of road tax for improving their roads; 3d., that school matters were neglected, &c., &c. The meeting reorganized after the "bolters" had departed by calling Mr. M. Woods to the chair and electing W. S. Jahl as Secretary when the following fair and impartial ticket which will commend itself highly to all right thinking voters of the township, was nominated, For Treasurer Jacob Ackert; Assessor and for Assistant Assessors Cyrus Hutchinson, James McCallister, and Robert Campbell; Supervisor, Joseph Cullinan; For Judge of election, Michael Woods; Township Clerk, Wm. F. Richardson; Auditors, Joseph Chiverton, School Directors, Thomas Hughes, Jame Shipman; Constable, Joseph Cullinan. CITIZEN.

Hard on Johnson.

Suit has been entered by Peter Hunker against Captain Gust Braun for the recovery of some two hundred dollars, the amount of his bill for furnishing flags, blue fire, &c., for the reception of President Johnson in Pittsburgh, last fall, while "swinging round the circle." Captain B. was an active member of the Committee of Arrangements on that occasion, as he also was in arranging for the State Soldiers' Convention, at the Academy of Music, in this city, and also for the subsequent soldiers' demonstration for "my policy," at Cleveland, having his eye open to the "main chance." He "got his reward" in an appointment; but we imagine that in this little matter of Mr. Hunker's he will be disposed to discuss the question of his responsibility, and that he will put in as a defense that the flags, fire works, &c., were purchased by the committee, consisting of himself and G. W. Leonard, Esq., upon the assurance of Hon. Henry A. Weaver, N. P. Sawyer, F. E. Volz, Col. Samuel McKelvy, General George W. Cass, R. H. Kerr, (Hon. in prospective,) and others, that the bills would be paid by the treasurer of a fund raised for the purpose. He also threatens that if he is to be held accountable for expenses incurred, he will bring suit against the parties named for his services, claiming that upon him and his fellow committee men devolved the getting up of anything like an enthusiastic demonstration on the occasion of Andy's visit. As "my policy" paper is below par hereabouts, the "endorsers" will be obliged to come to tea in the matter of Mr. Hunker, and doubtless in other cases.

Pittsburgh Bank for Saving.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of this reliable and well managed institution, which as the Dime Savings Bank, has long worthily enjoyed the confidence of the community at [illegible]. Its board of managers emb[illegible] and trustworthy business men[illegible] the affairs in the most credit[illegible] giving the amplest assurance to [illegible] that their interests will be securely [illegible] ed and protected. Deposits of any amount are received o upon which a liberal and inducing rate of interest is allowed. The office of the bank is at No. 67 Fourth street and is open for business daily from nine till four o'clock, and on Wednesday and Saturday evenings from six to eight o'clock. We cheerfully commend this Savings Bank to small capitalists and others.

Pittsburgh Business Almanac.—We have received from the publishers an invaluable little book with this title, just published. It is decidedly the best work of the character ever published, and reflects Pittsburgh in the most perfect manner. Business men should have hundreds of copies for distribution among their outside patrons. The almanac contains 270 pages, is neatly printed and bound and contains a world of carefully prepared local and national information. Woods & Co. are the enterprising publishers.

Telegraphic Change.—A. L. Casselbury, Esq., formerly manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city, has resigned his situation in that Company having accepted the position of Superintendent in the office of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company. His successor in the Western Union office, is S. S. Gilson Esq. formerly and for a long time a skillful operator in the office. Both the gentlemen mentioned are well known to our citizens, and eminently qualified for the positions they take.

The Paris Exposition.—The attention of those contemplating visiting Europe is directed to the advertisement in another column of William Bingham, Jr., offering passage by numerous lines by cabin or steerage, at the most advantageous rates. We commend Mr. Bingham to our readers, as all business entrusted to him will be carefully and promptly attended to. Passports and drafts for any sums furnished. Call at the Adam's Express office for further information.

Timely Interference.—Alderman Taylor yesterday received the information of Anna Schultz, a resident of Spring alley, who charged Mary Ann Hannegan with surety of the peace. It is alleged that Mrs. Haenegan threatened to knock deponent's head off, and deponent verily believes that she would have carried her terrible threat into execution had it not been for the timely interference of defendant's mother. Timely interference to be sure!

Bridge over Montour's Run.—In the matter of the petition of the citizens of Upper St. Clair township for a public bridge over Montour's Run, where the same crosses the old Washington and Pittsburgh road, the Court granted an alias order to view and appointed J. B. Steiley, (artist) Henry Boekstore and Joseph Espy, viewers, with the same powers, and to report in the same manner set forth in the first order to view.

The Town of Braddock.—The grand jury, in the matter of the petition for the incorporation of the town of Braddock, after a full hearing and investigation, have found that the conditions prescribed by the act of Assembly, in the case made and provided have been complied with, and believe that it is expedient to grant the prayer of the petitioners. The Court will, therefore, grant a charter of incorporation.

A Womanly Row.—Eliza Johnston and Mrs. Wachter live near each other on Allegheny street, in the Ninth ward, and as female neighbors will sometimes, have had a muss. Mrs. Johnston alleged that Mrs. Wachter committed a violent assault upon her, and accordingly made information against her for assault and battery before Alderman Taylor. A warrant was issued.

Alleged Burglary Committed.—Michael Scott and Wm. Devers, charged on oath of officer Edward Owens with burglariously entering the tavern of Patrick Magee and taking thence some money and a revolver had a partial hearing before Deputy Mayor Morrow yesterday, and were committed to jail to await a further hearing on the 15th instant.

Killed.—A workman named Roger Hagerty, about thirty-five years of age, yesterday fell from a construction train on the Connellsville Railroad, opposite the Poor House. The wheels passed over his body, killing him instantly. Coroner Clawson held an inquest; verdict accidental death. The deceased had no relatives hereabouts.

Accumulating.—There must be a frightful amount of domestic crime in Pittsburgh. Since our publication in Tuesday's paper, of the particulars of an aggravated adultery case, nearly a dozen similar cases have been mentioned to us by parties anxious to know whether either of them was the case we referred to.

For Further Hearing.—Deputy Mayor Morrison yesterday committed to jail for further hearing, Thomas Hughes, charged by John Dingledein with aggravated assault and battery. The hearing will take place on the 19th inst.

Soldiers' Monument.—The ladies having the Soldiers' monument "on their hands" are prosecuting their work with diligence. They do not complain of the job being too heavy to carry.

Held for Court.—Alderman Mullen, of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, yesterday had before him Wm. Lynch, charged with surety of the peace on oath of John Sheets. The parties work together in a barge yard, in the First ward, Allegheny. A hearing was had and the defendant held to bail for Court.

About two hundred young men have anxiously solicited from us the names of the parties about to figure in that divorce case. Can it be that they all are conscience stricken, and have figured in other cases of like character?

Drunks.—Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny, had before him yesterday morning, two men and a woman, imprisoned for drunkenness. The men were fined the usual amount. The woman was discharged.

Departed.—Governor Geary very sensibly has followed Governor Curtin in departing from Friday as hangman's day, in fixing Wednesday, April 10th, for the execution of Teutel, the Bristol murderer.

A Great Cast.—The Opera House bills announce the performance of the "Mary with the Wax Figures," with a "great cast." It is natural to associate life size wax figures with a great cost.

Arrested on Process.—Mrs. Ann Gallagher understands the process of being arrested. She was arrested yesterday on a process issued by Court, for selling liquor without a license.

The Gazette pays the highest union rates to all its compositors, and is in favor of labor bringing, at all times and everywhere, its full market value—no more, no less.

Will be Passed.—The bill authorizing the Mayor's clerk to administer oaths will probably be passed by the Legislature if recommended by the City Councils.

Committed for Costs.—Ellen Scanlon, convicted in the Criminal Court of larceny, was yesterday committed to jail for the non payment of the costs.

John Oxenhart Again.—John Ozenhart charged with surety of the peace, was arrested yesterday on a process from Court and committed to jail.

Drills.—The Pittsburgh Fenians drill nightly, and hold themselves ready to march at a moment's notice. There is no discount on their patriotism.

Pleased.—The woolmen are pleased at their recent success on the tariff. Democrats say Congress will favor anything pertaining to wool.

Got Bail.—We yesterday mentioned the arrest, on a process, of Samuel Lloyd, charged with rape. He obtained bail yesterday and was again released.

Don't Put Off leaving your measure for a half dozen of those perfect fitting French Yoke Shirts, at Murdock & Putnam's, 72 Fifth street.

The Ant and Elephant.—The little Journal, gorged with stealings from the GAZETTE, wants to compare files with us. Good joke.

Workmen's Paper.—A new organ for workmen is to be started. A movement for somebody to grind out a fortune which will not succeed.

Extended.—There has passed the Senate a bill extending the term of the Mayor of Allegheny from one to two years. Very sensible.

Mr. Lester, a gymnast, while performing in Zanesville, fell thirty-five feet. This was not on the programme. He was slightly injured.

Officers Chosen.—See list of officers elected by the Midas Petroleum and Improvement Company, published elsewhere.

Moving Time.—There will be the usual moving time holidays allowed in the Public Schools from the 28th inst, to April 8th.

The Connellsville Railroad bill will be brought to a final vote in the Legislature to-day. We fear it is doomed to die.

Not a Candidate.—Rev. Col. J. B. Clark is not a candidate for any office. So he said at a public meeting of workmen.

Again Quiet.—Allegheny City has grown quiet and orderly, the roughs coming over this side to indulge in their sports.

Joseph Howard don't want any body to sell his wife Eliza any intoxicating drinks. So he advertises.

No Police Business.—There was no police business transacted in Birmingham yesterday, worthy of note.

Quarters.—A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to divide Pittsburgh into four police districts.

Only Twenty deaths last week in Pittsburgh, sixteen whites and four colored, eleven males and nine females.

Sanitary.—The Street Commissioners are preparing for a thorough cleansing of the city next month.

Committed by Court.—John Madden was yesterday committed to jail by the Court of Quarter Sessions.

Cleveland Merchants force customers to buy goods by closing doors and threatening bodily harm.

The Harrisburg Telegraph publishes a five column speech for Senator Bigham on the Connellsville Railroad Bill.

Petty Larceny.—The obscure evening paper called Journal stole twenty-seven of our items yesterday.

There are sixty-three tenantable courts—not of justice, but of small dwellings, in Pittsburgh.

Muddy.—The streets are in a very muddy condition, but possibly will be found frozen this morning.

Allegheny City is swallowing up territory. It will soon be a formidable rival to Pittsburgh.

Poor Farm.—The Allegheny Councils want to get authority to sell their Poor Farm.

Twelve Children, under ten years of age went to heaven from Pittsburgh, last week.

Killed.—James Scanlon, of Cleveland, was killed at Cleveland by a locomotive on Sunday.

The County Superintendent of Washington county gets a salary equivalent to $600.

The Tombs in Allegheny last night contained no occupants up till twelve o'clock.

There are one hundred and thirty-three churches in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of a desirable business house to let.

Small Pox.—There was one death from small pox in the city last week.

A Great fox hunt is to take place at Zanesville next Saturday.

A Methodist congregation has been formed in Rochester, Pa.

Ristori continues to be the subject of fashionable gossip.

Potatoes.—It is very difficult to obtain good potatoes in this market.

South Pittsburgh accounts are published in another column.

The Free Letter delivery works like a charm in this neighborhood.

Alderman Morrow is officiating as Mayor during the absence of his Honor.

Boat Clubs.—There are twelve boat clubs organized in Pittsburgh.

Falling Off.—The attendance at the Court of Quarter Sessions.

Kay & Co. offer store fixtures and iron safe for sale. See advertisement.

Street Sprinklers are already canvassing for summer work.

375 Children attend the public school at Rochester, Pa.

A Musical Mouse has been discovered in Cleveland.

There was a death from old age in the city last week.

Butter is scarce and commands good prices.

Cold.—Yesterday was a raw, cold day.

Ice will be plenty next season.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1867.

IF THE PRESIDENT, as reported, has appointed Sickles, Thomas, Schofield, Ord and Sheridan as commandants under the Military Reconstruction Bill, he has reasonably satisfied the just demands of public opinion.

◆

GEN. MOORHEAD, in introducing the Tariff bill of the last Congress, did not expect it would be acted upon presently. His aim was to get it before the Committee of Ways and Means as early as possible, so as to give time for the amplest consideration of it.

◆

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE has wisely resolved that none but lawyers of first class attainments and standing shall be appointed Registrars under the Bankrupt Bill. Whether the law will be allowed to stand will depend greatly on the fidelity and intelligence with which it shall be worked.

◆

THE President does not deny the accuracy of his Repudiation conversation, as detailed by General Halpine. He only says he will not be held answerable for that report. The Judiciary Committee, however, has summoned the General before it to testify touching the conversation.

◆

A BILL has been introduced into the Ohio Legislature to punish by fine and imprisonment any school-teacher who flogs a pupil. Having abolished the whipping post as an instrument of penal law, and prohibited flogging in the Army and Navy, consistency requires that flagellation should be stopped in places of public instruction.

◆

CONSOLIDATION.—A bill has passed, and become a law, consolidating the Borough of Manchester with the City of Allegheny; also, annexing to Allegheny so much of Maclure township, as is embraced by extending the north line of Manchester to throw into the city the water works situated on Troy Hill; also, to annex the Borough of Duquesne to Allegheny, provided its voters, at their regular election, to be held to-morrow, shall consent.

THE rebel Senate of Louisiana is deeply concerned for the Federal Constitution, which it holds to be infracted by the Military Government Law. Don't those Senators know it is unconstitutional to let rebels, such as they are, live? Their lives are spared simply because the laws of the land are not enforced against them. Of all men, they are the last who should insist on a rigid construction and fulfillment of constitutional provisions.

GEN. HARRIMAN is the new Governor of New Hampshire by 3,000 majority. In addition, all three of the members of Congress are Republicans, as before. In the first district Mr. Ela succeeds Mr. Marston; in the second Mr. Stevens succeeds Mr. Rollins, and in the third Mr. Benton succeeds Mr. Patterson. Both branches of the Legislature are largely Republican. The fact is the Republicans of New Hampshire have been doing so well for years past, they can do better only by annihilating their opponents.

SOUTHERN DESTITUTION.

There is perfect concurrence of testimony establishing the fact that in many districts of the South the inhabitants are in sore distress for the means of subsistence. Some have actually died of starvation, and thousands more are in great danger of meeting the same horrible fate unless relief shall be afforded them either by the interposition of the national government or by private contributions on the part of citizens of the Northern and Border States.

Doubtless this destitution is one of the sad penalties entailed by the Rebellion; but that circumstance is far from constituting a valid reason for permitting it to go unrelieved. Humanity and patriotism alike revolt at such an intimation. While the war lasted, the disloyal people of the South were, indeed, public enemies, and were justly treated as such. But the war was prosecuted, on the national side, in order that the people of the two sections might not be separated and estranged, but be bound together by bands, not simply of constraint, but of mutual benefit and happiness. Whatever vindictiveness was exhibited on the part of the rebels, none was manifested or felt by the people of the North. The war is happily closed. The sufferers not only share our common humanity, which makes a tender appeal in their behalf; but they are our countrymen; members of the same political family, their destiny knit together with our destiny, so that we are one and inseperable, and in so abolute a sense that a part cannot suffer without the whole experiencing injury.

The New York Tribune, some days ago, in one of those eccentric outbursts by which it delights to startle its readers and affront the common sense of the country, advanced the thesis that suffering, the natural result of wrong doing, ought neither to be prevented or medicated. The proposition that suffering is the best part of sin, and the best medicine therefor, is sonorous, but it is not true. Not a genuine man or woman in the nation consents to it in its application to the peculiar phase of suffering at the South to which attention is called.

A proposition is before Congress to appropriate a million of dollars in relief of this destitution. The Maryland Legislature has granted one hundred thousand dollars for the same purpose. Private benefactions, to a considerable amount, have gone forward, and, under the urgent appeal of General HOWARD that all the aid is needed that can be obtained, the flow, we trust, will be both continued and increased.

A GREAT ENTERPRISE.

A bill is now before the Legislature incorporating a company to construct a tunnel from some point not designated in the city of Pittsburgh, on the westward of Liberty street, to run under the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, or, in part, under the Ohio, to such points as may be selected by the company in West Pittsburgh or Temperanceville, on the one side, and Allegheny City on the other. Whether the proposed tunnel will be like the letter Y or V we are not able to state, but its object is to connect this city with both the north and south banks of the rivers which bound it on both sides—the one branch terminating at some place in the lower part of Allegheny; the other probably at or near Sawmill Run.

The corporators named in the bill are B. C. Sawyer, Jr., Thomas Steel, F. E. Volz, H. A. Weaver, C. Scully, John C. Barr, J. B. Kennedy, Samuel McKee, A. L. Robinson, T. J. Bingham, A. G. Lloyd, Samuel Wickersham, Jno. Suyder, H. L. Bowman, Wm. Perkins, Adam Apple, Wm. Smith, Stephen H. Geyer, Joshua Rhodes, Wm. H. Brown, and William Phillips.

The company are to have the power to raise on bonds and mortgage of the tunnel and the stock of the company, the sum of one million of dollars for carrying out the purposes of the act. The usual provisions with regard to private interests are inserted. It also authorises the company to lay down in said tunnel two railway tracks, starting from a point in the city of Pittsburgh mutually agreed upon by the city authorities and the company, and traversing the most direct route to said tunnel, and through the same to Allegheny City, West Pittsburgh, &c.

Whether these are to be street railroads, or continuations of some of our main lines of road does not appear from anything we yet have. Most likely, however, they are to be ordinary street railroads, to be operated by horse power, and that the tunnels are to be great gas-lighted thoroughfares, free to all who will pay the toll. We think it is a scheme to supercede the long-talked-of tripartite bridge; and as it will avoid any obstruction to steamboat navigation it is a great improvement over that scheme. If well lighted, as it may be, this tunnel will afford grand avenues to the territory outside of our now contracted limits.

EQUALISING BOUNTIES.

It is well known that as the war progressed it became necessary to offer larger bounties for military service, just as it became necessary to pay higher prices for arms, ammunition, clothes, provisions, and what not, for the use of the armies. No one pretends that the Government failed to meet its bounty contracts with men who enlisted. What they agreed to take they got; what the Government bargained to give, it paid. It would seem that here ought to be the end of this business. Some people think differently. Accordingly, a bill was passed by the House of Representatives, at the last session, to give the earlier recruits the sum of four hundred millions of dollars. Where the money was to come from the members who voted for the bill did not stop to enquire. Either they expected the Senate would kill the bill, or that they should discover the bottom of the strong box in the Treasury. The Senate did defeat the bill, for which the country owes that body thanks.

It is presumable a large majority of the soldiers entitled to money, by the terms of this bill, are about as well off as if it had passed. The bulk of the money would have stopped short on the hands of speculators.

Already two bill are before the House, renewing the proposition to equalize bounties. Does anybody suppose the speculators would be content with the passage of one or both these bills? No sooner would they be done with those jobs, that they would bring forward schemes for equalizing the pay of men who furnished material. The sooner an end is made of this whole business the better. Members who do not want to bankrupt the government will refrain from countenancing schemes of this description.

FRANCE.

According to the French census taken in 1866, and just published, the population exceeds 37,000,000. The increase during the last ten years, not including Savoy and Nice, annexed by treaty with Italy, is 1,300,000.

Some facts of yet more general interest are disclosed. The death-rate is steadily diminishing. The inhabitants, on the average, live longer, and have better health, than formerly. This is in exact accordance with the returns [illegible] most European countries, as well as [illegible] the United States, however it may conflict with popular opinion. The birth-rate, also, is lessening; that is, as many children are not born now, in proportion to the population, as in former times. Recently the same fact was brought out, as to Massachusetts, and the inference was unwisely taken that the vitality of the native inhabitants was dying out. It might more plausibly have been conjectured that the emigration of the young and middle-aged people from that Commonwealth, leaving an unusual ratio of old ones behind, explained the phenomenon. And this movement may well be charged with part of the result. But, it will hardly be pretended that the French people are decaying. To a large extent they are accepting the doctrine of MALTHUS that it is wrong to bring into the world more children than can be fairly provided for in the respective families.

COURTING THE BLACKS.

The New York World recently implored the Southern Democrats to "court" the black men, their neighbors, into whose hands Congress delivered ballots. There are reasons for thinking that advice will be heeded to a considerable degree; the chief of which is the military protection vouchsafed to the blacks. Up in Nebraska the negroes were allowed to vote in order to get the Territory admitted as a State. No military commandant is or will be charged with the duty of seeing the black voters have fair play; and so the Demcrats seem inclined to dispense with the "courting" process. The Charter election was held at Omaha last Monday. A Democratic mob took possession of the polls and drove the blacks away. This mob violence had been pre arranged, and by a pre-concerted movement when the negroes came up to vote, they were stopped outside by the mob. The Democratic officers of the law were present and witnessed the mob violence and trampling of the law under foot, but did not suppress it, and in the Third ward the Democratic judge of election, with a certified copy of the Territorial law, under which he decided he was acting, refused to receive a negro elector's vote.

We call the attention of the World to these doings. Can't it urge its friends in Nebraska to "court" in a more loving manner?

THE Memphis Bulletin, edited by "Admiral Semmes," late of the rebel privateer Alabama, in dealing with the veto of the Military Government bill, says:

"Unfortunately for President Johnson, however, he has been guilty of so many palpable violations of the Constitution himself that no one can give him credit for sincerity when he undertakes to defend that instrument. No one can write better peace proclamations and veto messages, or make better speeches in defence of constitutional liberty than President Johnson; but then every reader of these productions has constantly presented to his mind the painful contrast between what he says and what he does."

—A proposition has gained favor in Virginia to make produce a legal tender.

The hearings before the liquor law committee of the Massachusetts Legislature are disclosing the opinions of some of the eminent men of the country in relation to the best method of dealing with the evil of intemperance. On Friday, Rev. Dr. Peabody, of Harvard College, testified that in his judgment prohibitory legislation has done but little good. It had been almost without effect in reducing the sale of liquor in Cambridge. The most equitable legislation would be that which should impose the cost of pauperism and crime resulting from intemperance upon the liquor sellers. Mayor Lincoln, of Worcester, stated that in spite of the most energetic efforts to enforce the prohibitory law in that city, intemperance had not decreased. Rev. Dr. Bacon, of Yale College, New Haven, said that although the prohibitory law had been somewhat effective at first, there was now more intemperance in the city where he resided than ever before. The present law tended to demoralization. It was better to regulate the evil of drinking than to attempt to suppress it. Rev. Dr. Ide, of Springfield, Mass., testified that in his experience intemperance had increased during the prevalence of the prohibitory law in that State.

—The midnight meetings for the reclamation of fallen women have been in operation in London for five years with the following result: Five hundred and eighty-three women were restored to parents and friends, 1,800 were placed in service, 66 married, 5 were reconciled to their husbands, 400 were assisted to obtain employment, 4 emigrated, 4 were sent home to the Continent, 2 were established in business, 472 left or were dismissed, and 250 were sent to the hospital.

WANT SUPPLIED.

London Ale, Bottled Ales, London Porter, Brown Stout. To get genuine imported London Ale, Porter or Brown Stout, has been almost an impossibility in this city, notwithstanding that there are few tonics more suitable for weakly persons and invalids. The want has at length been supplied. A large assortment of the finest brands, comprising Barclay & Perkins' London Stout, Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale, Campbell's Scotch Ale, etc., just received at JOSEPH FLEMING'S DRUG STORE, No. 84 Market street, and is sold by the case or single bottle, at the lowest rates. Also, a complete stock of the finest Liquors for medicinal purposes, and Campbell's Sparkling Ale, the finest article in use. Remember the place,

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION.

HOW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT CURE.—Some occupations of life predispose to Costiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain. Habitual constipation is a very obstinate disorder. All the ordinary so-called remedies invariably aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost paralyze the bowels—rendering them so torpid that enormous doses of cathartic medicines have no effect upon them. A mild aperient, combined with a gentle stimulant, is the true remedy; and a combination in the happiest proportion, of these ingredients, is found in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This famous stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal, while quietly removing from its convolutions all impediments to a free passage through them. No mere purgative has this double operation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Constipation abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the medicines of the dispensary in vain, we say, try this irresistible stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why Constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will in all cases enable the system to perform its excretory functions regularly and healthfully.

THE HONEY OF WHITE PINE.

With that indomitable Yankee skill and genius peculiar to the people of New England, and worthy of the instinct of the honey-bee only, Dr. GEORGE W. SWETT, of Boston, has compounded a medicine out of the sweet inside bark of the [illegible] pine tree, which has a wide reputation in a large variety of diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and mucous surfaces and membranes generally, called "WHITE PINE COMPOUND."

Dr. SWETT says that it is sweet and palatable, and is readily taken both by children and adults, and was originally known to the aborigines, who so named the forests of those States, and used it in a variety of diseases, especially those of scorbutic character. It is a sure cure for DIABETES, GRAVEL, ENURESIS, BLOODY AND MUCOUS URINE, and the troublesome malady known as albuminorea, or Bright's disease. Those who have tried in vain the various Buchus and diuretics, will find in Poland's White Pine Compound a remedy of superior efficacy and power.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF

$23,000,000.

AN ACT

To Create a Loan

FOR THE REDEMPTION OF

The Over-Due Bonds of the Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The bonds of the Commonwealth, and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to twenty-three millions of dollars, have been over due and unpaid for some time past;

And Whereas, It is desirable that the same should be paid, and withdrawn from the market; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to borrow, on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice, (not less than forty days) as they may deem most expedient or the interests of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first of February and first of August, in the City of Philadelphia, which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever, for State, municipal or local purposes, and shall be payable as follows, namely: Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years: eight millions of dollars, payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-fiv and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer, and countersigned by the Auditor General and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and to be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth, at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, et cetera, received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder; Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued, shall be negotiated for less than its par value.

SEC. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now over due, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, ditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the loan, now authorized to be issued, shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees, or other persons, holding in a fiduciary capacity, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued by this act.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act, who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust, may, without any order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.

SEC. 6. That from and after the passage of this act, all the bonds of this Commonwealth shall be paid off in the order of their maturity.

SEC. 7. That all loans of this Commonwealth, not yet due, shall be exempt from State, municipal or local taxation, after the interest due February first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall have been paid.

SEC. 8. That all existing laws, or portions thereof, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
L. W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JOHN W. GEARY.

In accordance with the provision of the above act of Assembly, sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Treasurer, in the city of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, until 12 o'clock, M., of the 1st day of April, A. D., 1867, to be endorsed as follows: "Proposals for Pennsylvania State Loan," Treasury Department, Harrisburg, Penn'a, U. S. A.

Bids will be received for $5,000,000, reimbursable in Five years and payable in Ten years; $8,000,000 reimbursable in Ten years and payable in Fifteen years; and $10,000,000 reimbursable in Fifteen ears and payable in Twenty-Five years. The rate of interest to be either 5 or 6 per cent. per annum, which must be explicitly stated in the bid, and the bids most advantageous to the State will be accepted. No bid for less par will be considered. The bonds will be issued in sums of $50, and such higher sums as desired by the loaners, to be free from State, local and municipal taxes.

The over due bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be received at par in payment of this loan, but bidders must state whether they intend to pay in cash or in the over due loans aforesaid.

No distinction will be made between bidders paying in cash or over-due loans.

JOHN W. GEARY,
Governor of Pennsylvania.
JOHN F. HARTRANFT,
Auditor General.
W. H. KEMBLE,
State Treasurer.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1867.

THE BUTLER COUNTY HOMICIDE.

Trial of John B. Adlington for the Murder of Sidney B. Cunningham and James H. Teeples, at Portersville.

MONDAY'S AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Court met pursuant to adjournment The prisoner was brought into Court by the Sheriff.

General J. N. Purviance, on part of the defence, and with the concurrence of his colleagues, moved that the witnesses on the part of the Commonwealth, as well as those on the part of the defence, should retire from the Court House, and be kept in a room by themselves until called upon to testify.

The Court observed that the witnesses could not hear one-half of what was testified by witnesses, from their position in the audience. Unless the Court had evidence that there was a combination, they would not make an order for that purpose.

Mr. McCarthy and Mr. McCandless urged that it was discretionary with the Court and they appealed to that discretion.

The Court overruled the motion.

Sidney Oliver, called; but it was stated by counsel, that he was sick at the hotel.

Dr. Cowden, re-called—Mr. Oliver told me he was attacked this morning; expectorating blood. He feels unable to come at present. Passed over.

Calvin Weller, sworn—I live in Lawrence county, a mile and a half from Portersville. Was at the house of John Oliver on the night of the 24th of December last; saw Bowder and Marshall standing together; there was a dancing party there; Sidney B. Cunningham and James H. Teeples were there; was not acquainted with them; saw Frederick Bowder and Dinwiddie Marshall there; they were in the middle room; don't remember who all were present; half a dozen; Teeples, Cunningham, Bowder, Marshall and William Pringle; I was in the North room, by the door, looking in at the door of the parlor; this was about 11½ P. M. There were no ladies nor others there; the North room is where the dancing was; saw Bowder and Marshall talking; Cunningham jumped up and asked them what they had against New Castle; Frederick Bowder turned round and said he was not talking to him; with that Cunningham knocked him down partially, then hit him again and knocked him down, and hit him three or four times after he was down. Then John Oliver went in the room out of the dancing room; also, Henry Bowder went in; Cunningham then knocked Oliver down. I did not notice Oliver do anything; he went up toward Cunningham. I did not see Cunningham afterwards until I saw him sitting in the hall. I was taking care of Frederick Bowder; I picked him up, and he hit William Virker; I took him into the North room—into the dining room; I saw Adlington standing in the door that leads into the North room with a knife in his hand; think it was while I was taking Bowder out of the room that I saw this; think it was in the door that I saw it; I think Adlington went on out to the dancing room when I took Fred. Bowder out; he was looking into the room when I saw him with the knife; could not say which way he went; I judge he went into the North room, don't know which way he went; he held it (the knife) up this way [showing the manner he held the knife;] he said "now I have warned you," or "I warn you," I don't know which. He held the knife out and shook it; I don't know who he was looking at; he was looking into the parlor where the fuss occurred.

Here the Court interrupted counsel, and urged that they hold themselves strictly to the rules of evidence. There was too much time occupied in repeating what the witnesses said. If the counsel did not hear, they could ask the Court to have the testimony repeated. Side bar remarks would not be allowed.

Mr. Weller resumed—Adlington appeared to be angry while shaking his knife; I think it was a double-edged knife; I would suppose the blade to be five or six inches long, and an inch or more broad; I just cast my eye up at it; it appeared to be a pointed knife.

Mr. McCarthy objected to the question as leading. The Court said it was too leading.

Witness resumed.—The blade, I think, was about five inches long; inch and one-quarter broad; had a point; would call it a double edged butcher knife.

Mr. McCarthy objected to this mode of examination. He felt his responsibility, and he implored the court to enforce the rule against leading questions.

The Court said they should endeavor to keep within the rules.

Mr. Weller resumed.—After I took Frederick Bowden out of the room, I kept him there as long as I could; then gave him in charge of his brother and went back into the room; was out of the room not more than two minutes, and returned by the same door; John Oliver and Shaffer were fighting Teeples; Teeples was part down; I ran and caught Shaffer and took him back into the North room; saw Adlington hit Oliver on the back of the head with a chair; Teeple was kind of sitting on the floor, and Oliver was on him; John Oliver was hitting him with his fist about the head I believe; he caught the chair with both hands and struck him on the back of the head. I then saw Adlington kick at this man Teeple—at his head he kicked, I judge; think he had not the chair at this time; think the blow on Oliver had little effect. He was either took off or got off himself. Don't know that I did anything after I went into the North room with Shaffer; was there about five minutes; the fuss was then over. The first I saw of Cunningham, after that, was when he was sitting in the hall; I think I went up stairs then with John Oliver. I don't know who brought him out of the parlor. I think Adlington took Oliver up stairs; I don't know who said we had better get the Doctor. Don't know that anybody told me to go for the Doctor; they were talking around that he had better be got for all of them. Mrs. Adlington, John Adlington, and some others, were in the room up stairs. Heard several say that the men were cut and the doctor should be sent for. Don't know whether it was up stairs that this conversation took place; believe I started from below; think I remained up stairs but a minute or two; don't know that I conversed with any one particularly. The first place I saw Cunningham, he was sitting in the hall handy to the door, with his head on his breast, sitting flat on the floor with his back to the wall; think his legs were stretched out. He was on the right hand side as you go in at the door, about three feet from the front door; saw people in the hall and the bar-room. Think it was in the hall or kitchen that some one said the Doctor should be sent for. The defendant assisted to take Oliver up stairs. I went up behind them; did not go into the room again before going for the Doctor. Went after him and came back with him; went up stairs with him and came down with him. Saw him when he looked at Teeple. I was at the Hotel till after 3¼ o'clock, P. M.; John Oliver said he was not badly hurt. The Doctor knew there were others badly hurt. I remember of the Doctor examining Teeple; he said he was hurt down here (on left side); think Cunningham was brought into the room. Did not see the Doctor examine Cunningham.

Mr. Thompson, for defendant, objected to the testimony in relation to Teeple.

The commonwealth having proved by the doctor the nature and character of the wound of Teeple, now proposed to ask this witness (who was present at the examination—the body of Cunningham lying in the room) what took place at that examination, as part of the res gestae of the whole transaction.

The court asked the witness how long it was between the time the doctor was called and the time he examined Teeple.

Mr. Thompson objected that evidence of the character of the wound of Teeple was no part of the res gestae of this case. The defendant was on trial for the murder of Sidney B. Cunninghom, and not for that of Teeple; hence this evidence was irrelevant, and had nothing to do with the case.

The court overruled the objection and noted an exception.

Witness resumed—The doctor probed the wound, and said he guessed the rib stopped the instrument There were very few in the room at the time. The doctor asked Teeple if he was hurt. He pointed with his hand where he was hurt. We took the things out of Cunningham's pocket after he died; he had no weapons; a pass book, pocket book, and some other little things. I was there when he died. I think it was about one o'clock in the morning. I never saw the knife before or since, never saw it but once I did not see at what time he (Adlington) entered the sitting room; I believe I heard him say if them men had not been killed, there might have been more men killed than there was. This was in the bar-room about two o'clock, A. M., after Cunningham had died; there were a number present; James Gibson, William Gibson, and Jas. Marshall were present; can't tell how long we had been in the bar-room; did not notice that he addressed himself to any one particularly; noticed nothing out of the way in his manner; don't know what led him to make the remark; I believe they were talking about the fight; believe I have stated all that I saw him do.

The Commonwealth offered to ask the witness if he saw any other person present with arms on that night.

Mr. Thompson objected, and the proposition was reduced to writing. The objection was, that it had no connection with the case on trial.

The court admitted the evidence, and noted an exception.

Witness resumed.—I saw no other persons with weapons that night.

By the Court.—Had none myself.

Witness resumed.—Saw no one strike the defendant; heard no one use an insulting or an improper word to the defendant.

Cross-Examined—Had no previous acquaintance with Teeple or Cunningham. There were ten or twelve ladies and more gentlemen at the party. I came to the party about ten o'clock P. M.; came from Jas. M. Marshall's to the party; I came to Portersville about five P. M.; was at Oliver's directly afterwards. Saw Teeple and Cunningham when they came, between seven and eight o'clock. I went down to Marshall's to get my wife when the party commenced; I was there when Teeples and Cunningham came; first saw them in the bar room; they were warming themselves by the fire; the next place I saw them was in the hall; they were going for oysters between eight and nine o'clock; heard these men talking about Oliver, and swore they could whip that man (the landlord); heard Cunningham speak of this after eating his oysters and returned into the sitting room. He swore he could whip that landlord. He said "by God he did not care a d—n for that landlord or any other d——d lord;" Jones, Kirker, McClarran and others were present. I believe he made no threat what he would do; only what he could do; he made no threat that he would kill the landlord before he left the house. I think he said he would whip him before he left the house. I think he said he had insulted him; Mr. Oliver was not present. They started away shortly after they had eaten their oysters, and I did not see them again until the party commenced. I left about fifteen minutes after they had eaten their oysters, they said they would go and take a walk. I think Cunningham was drunk, don't know that they had a bottle; the dance had not yet commenced. I don't know how long they were gone; half an hour afterwards I went for my wife. Probably fifteen minutes afterwards they came. They were in the sitting room; I next saw them in the dancing room; think they were back before eleven P. M. Saw Cunningham dance once; don't know where I next saw him. About an hour after he danced he had the trouble with Fred. Bowder. Think it was ten o'clock when I left Marshal's. There was a clock there, and one at Oliver's; believe I saw Sidney Oliver in the room of the fight; he was holding the light. He held a lamp, and stood by the fire-place, don't mind of the light going out; saw Sidney moving as though he was going out. I know James Amberson, but did not see him in the fight; did not see Henry Bowder; went back into the parlor after the fight; John Oliver and Shaffer were there fighting Teeple; I saw nothing of Cunningham after Teeple was knocked down till I saw him him sitting in the hall; think it was not more than five minutes afterwards that I went for the doctor; think I did not see Cunningham before I went up stairs with Oliver; I was not out in the bar-room before going up stairs; there was no light in the hall; it was moonlight and you could distinguish objects in the hall; it was light in the front end of the hall; the front door was open; there was nothing to prevent seeing an object where Cunningham sat; I don't recollect whether I saw Cunningham on going up stairs; Teeple was lying to the left hand of the door going into the hall; saw him before going up stairs; he was lying at full length with his head toward the door. Teeple was sitting in a chair by the fire in the parlor, when the words in reference to New Castle were uttered. Cunningham jumped up at the mention of New Castle. Bowder and Marshall were at my right hand in the parlor; Bowder was two or three feet from the door; I was doing nothing at the time Cunningham struck Bowder. I saw him knock John Oliver down before I took Bowder out. I think I called to Henry Bowder to come to me; Cunningham had his back to the hall door when he struck Oliver but once and knocked him down; don't know whether he retreated; Oliver fell with his head toward the North room. Henry came and took charge of Fred. Bowder; think the fight did not last over five minutes. The fight had ceased when we took Oliver up stairs; saw Oliver and Shaffer strike Teeple; he was partly on the floor facing the north room, when they were striking him, about half way between the door and the corner of the room. Teeple was not doing any thing. Dont know whether he hallooed or not. It was some two or three minutes after I took Bowder out when this occurred; this was after I called Henry to come. I went in after Oliver and Shaffer; followed them in, probably ¼ or ½ minute afterwards. Dont know when Henry Bowder went. About the time I was taking Fred out I saw Teeple on his feet. The lamp I believe was on the mantle-piece; I think the light was not out; I passed through the door where Adlington had been standing; I did not see what way he went; think he stood about the middle of the door; think it was Dunwiddie Marshall; who helped me take Fred Bowder into the dancing room. John Oliver was in; so was Fred Bowder, William Kirker, D. Marshall. I did not see Anderson in the room; think Wm. Pringle was there. The room is about 25 feet long. Did not see Cunningham go out at the back door. Don't think I had a better opportunity of seeing than others in the room; did not give exact length of the knife; only the supposed dimensions I have described; I only glanced casually at it. I think it was a knife because it looked like one; did not see the handle; could not tell what kind of a point it had; saw the edge; blade was the color of other knives; the broadside of it was toward me when I saw the edge; it looked as though it had as much of an edge on one side as on the other; it was a straight knife; think it had a sharp point; think it tapered to a point; think Marshall was in the same room with me—the parlor. I had hold of Bowder at the time I saw Adlington in the door; that is my best recollection. I pushed through this door to the dancing room. The next time that I saw him he was hitting Oliver with a chair; it was an arm chair; he took hold of it with both hands. I don't know what portion of the chair hit Oliver. Saw nothing in Adlington's hands but the chair; if he had had a knife at that time I think I could have seen it; it was three or four minutes after the time I saw him with the knife, that I saw him with the chair; Oliver was on Teeple when he (Oliver) was hit; Teeple was making no resistance; believe his legs were partly stretched out on the floor; saw three or four strokes; Shaffer struck Teeple once; saw Oliver strike him two or three times; no iron knuckles were used; I took off my coat for a fight; I might have said, "Here is one little man that has not been whipped yet;" I bought this knife [exhibited] in New Castle, in January; I carried no knife previously; I know it was in January, because there were snow drifts when I went after it; I had heard of these men and determined that I would defend myself. They swore they could whip any man there. He (Cunningham) swore that by God he could whip any man there, or any man in Butler county. This was immediately after they had eaten their oysters. The banter against the landlord was made just previous to this. I think it was after I came down stairs from John Oliver that I saw Cunningham in the hall; saw Teeple before I went after the doctor. I knew he was on the floor, but did not know he was hurt. Think I heard that Cunningham was cut before I went for the doctor. I think it was pretty near 12 o'clock when we went for the doctor; think it was about 1½ hours after the fight commenced till Cunningham died. I had iron knuckles with a pistol connected with them; I did not have them on that night; I gave them to John Oliver some three months ago; I got them a while on that day, but gave them back to John Oliver a little after dark; I had them only about fifteen minutes. The pistol is a six shooter, and could be used as a knuckler; I got it back for the purpose of keeping it; it was not in my pockets at the time of the fight; it is a revolver; no dagger connected with it; I bought it in New Castle; I got it to shoot dogs; it was small; used metallic cartridges; think there were other revolvers at the store where I purchased this one. Here a diagram of the rooms of the hotel was shown the witness, and he said he thought it correct.

Direct—Teeple was lying in the same place where Oliver and Shaffer were striking him; think the door from the hall into the sitting room was open. I saw Cunningham knock John Oliver down. That was the last I saw of him. When I came back they were striking Teeple on the floor; saw Adlington kicking at him—at his head. It was after Oliver was hit with the chair that Adlington kicked at Teeple. I think Teeple called out (about the time I took Fred. Bowder out) and said, "for God's sake, if there are any men among you, come one at a time." Don't know where the defendant was at the time. I can't say whether the defendant was one of those who were around Teeple when he cried out. Did'nt see the defendant in the dancing room at the time the three men were around Teeple; can't call to mind the persons who surrounded Teeple at the time he made the expression.

Cross examined again.—There were some two, or three, or four or five persons; could not say how many; there were some there; did not recognize who they were; there was a great excitement and alarm at the time; great deal of noise and confusion.

Court adjourned until nine A. M., tomorrow.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 55 acres in Union Township, Allegheny county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike The improvements are a large two story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story Spring House, a Carriage House, a large Lumber Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 12 acres, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, and would suit admirably for dairy or gardening purposes.
Also, 17½ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good Spring House and other out-buildings: with a good Orchard in fine bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal
The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.
Also Farm of 173 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard; 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Posession given immediately.
Also a Farm of 147 acres situated in Penn township, Westmoreland county, Pa., adjoining Grapeville Station, on Penn'a. Railroad, on which there is a good Two Story Stone House, with Six Rooms, a Barn, Carriage House, and other buildings; an Orchard of different fruit trees; it is underlayed with coal There is a Salt Well on it in good order, producing 9 bbls. per day This property is offered very cheap and good terms.
Also, a Farm of 135 acres, situated in Conemaugh township, Indiana county, Pa., about 2½ miles from the West Penn'a. Railroad, at Livermore Station. The improvements are a Two Story Frame House, with Four rooms, a double Porch and old Log Barn, Spring House. About 100 acres cleared, the residue in timber, such as white oak, locust and chestnut. This farm will be sold very low, the owner wishing to go west. Possession immediately.
Also, a Farm of 274 acres, situated in Centre township, Indiana county, Pa., about ½ mile from Horner Station, on the Indiana Branch Railroad. The improvements are a good Two Story Brick Dwelling, with six Rooms, a Cellar, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, 60 by 40, a fine Apple Orchard with a variety of different fruit trees, a good Cider Press; fencing generally good; well watered About 140 acres cleared. The residue in good timber land, and a good six foot vein of coal under the whole farm. A portion of the purchase money will be taken for well located lands in Nebraska, This property, if sold before the 10th of March, will be sold at the low price of 25 dollars per acre. Possession on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1868.
Also, An excellent Farm of 160 acres, of which 95 acres are under cultivation, situate in Christian county, Illinois. Improvements—a new frame dwelling containing 5 rooms; about 400 choice fruit trees, good fencing, &c. It lies within 2 miles of the Illinois Central R. R.; will be sold on reasonable terms. City property taken in part exchange if desired.
Also, 10 Lots in southern Suburbs of Chicago, each Lot 30 by 150, in Kedzier's sub-division of lots. These lots lie one mile North of the junction of St. Louis and Alton and Michigan Southern R. Rs., and are on the line of the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago R. R., just 5 miles South of the Court House, near the new Cattle Grounds, and will be sold for $300 each.
Also, a Farm of 312 acres in Penn township, Westmoreland county, 220 acres cleared and under cultivation, 92 acres of first-rate white oak and other timber, 2 dwelling houses, 1 of them 2 stories, the other 1 story, with a tenant house, with a first-rate Steam Sawmill in good running order; young orchard of grafted fruit. The land is rolling; every acre is tillable, with lime tone soil and subsoil, with never failing springs; within one hundred rods of the Penna. Central Railroad; 28 miles east of Pittsburgh, and three miles west of Greensburg. This farm is pleasantly and eligibly situated in a good neighborhood; every acre is underlaid with coal. The title is good.
Also, a Farm of 160 acres, situated in West Wheatfield township, Indiana county Penn'a, about 3 miles from Bolire Station, on the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are, a good two-story Brick House with 6 rooms a No. 1 frame Bank Barn, and all other necessary out buildings. The site is good, and the price very low, and on easy terms.

THE BUTLER COUNTY HOMICIDE.

Trial of John B. Adlington for the Murder of Sidney B. Cunningham and James H. Teeples at Portersville.

TUESDAY, March 12th, 1867.

The Court met, and the prisoner, John B. Adlington, was brought in and the case proceeded.

Sydney Oliver, sworn—Live in Portersville with my mother, in the tavern-house kept by my brother, John Oliver; was present on the night of the 24th of December last, at a ball at that house; Calvin Weller, Henry Bowder, Frederick Bowder, Jno. L. Jones, George Pringle, James Marshall, Urian McClarran, William Pringle, James Amberson and Lafayette Shafer were present; John B. Adlington was present; Sydney B. Cunningham and J. H. Teeples were there; William Kirker was there; was not present at the commencement of the difficulty, was up stairs; when I came down the fighting was going on; think I saw Fred. Bowder get up; saw John Oliver come into the room; he threw up his hand that way [showing how he did]; did not hear him say anything; he came through the north room; saw him fighting with Teeples, had him by the right wrist, and struck him back of the ear with his right hand, with his fist; did not see any weapon; I think I went out of the room then; out into the hall; there were some women on the stairs; when John was fighting Henry Bowder, Fred. Bowder, Lafayette Shaffer, John Adlington, and others, were in the room; do not know that Cunningham was in the room; don't know whether there were any persons in the hall; while I was in the hall I saw some one draw a chair in the room; saw fighting going on in the south part of the sitting room; could not see distinctly from my position; don't know who drew the chair; I went into the room when the fight was about over; I saw Fred. Bowder in the sitting room; he wanted to fight Teeples, who was lying by the door; I think he was intoxicated, and did not know what he was doing; said he wanted to know who it was that struck him; Teeples made no reply; don't remember; I know where Cunningham was at this time; think I saw Cunningham about five or six feet from the north room door, at the time the fight was going on; Adlington was standing within a few feet of him, with something in his hand shaking it; I thought at the time it was a knife he had in his hand; he was standing about this way, (showing attitude); didn't hear him say anything; he looked as though he was saying something, but I could not hear him; Cunningham was within four feet of him; Adlington was within two feet of the north room door, and Cunningham about six feet from the door; his face was toward Adlington, who was facing the hall in the room fronting Cunningham; don't think the knife was pointing toward Cunningham; he pointed straight out; Cunningham was at his left; he was standing perfectly still; didn't hear him say anything; Adlington looked excited, as all in the room did at that time; did not see where Adlington went; I was carrying the lamp out then; did not see Cunningham after that until I saw him in the hall; think I saw him in the hall when I went for the doctor; I handed the lamp out of the door to Urian McClarran; I did not want them to burn the house, so I took the lamp out as soon as I could; it had remained on the table previous to that time; I got hit just about that time by Frederick Bowder; he come from the east part of the room at that time; I was hit before I got the lamp out of my hand; passed the lamp out to McClarran, went back into the room and saw Teeples draw a chair; James Gibson and myself caught it and would not let him throw it; don't know who he drew the chair at; John Oliver then caught Teeples by the wrist and struck him; shortly after that Teeples was down, and I went for the doctor; John Adlington sent me for the doctor, saying that John was hurt; Adlington and Jones were with John Oliver in the kitchen; he told me to go on for the doctor, that John was hurt; I thought he was not much hurt; Teeples was lying on the oil cloth near the door in the sitting room; he hallooed three times for Kirker; he called "Kirker" three times; think Henry Bowder and I raised him up and gave him a drink; can't remember that he said anything at that time about his hurt; I think we next found Cunningham in a sitting position, in the corner of the hall; his legs stretched out; I asked him if he was hurt; he gasped; I went and told the doctor he was badly hurt; thought I saw Cunningham lying across the hall, and I had to pass over him in going for the doctor; some one moved him while I was gone for the Doctor; it might have been some one else lying there, but I believed it to be him at the time, and think so yet; after this I went up stairs; think the Doctor went up too; John Oliver was bleeding; Adlington was there; think he told the Doctor it would be better to put a couple of stitches in John's eyebrow; Mrs. Adlington wanted her husband to go home; he said he could not find his hat; I left the room first; next saw him washing his hands; said he had been helping the Doctor probe that man; he had blood on his hands and on his coat; he said that wouldn't hurt; he had got it in there; it would come off in a minute; think it was Teeples he helped probe; think he said he was going home, and he asked me to come and waken him if anything should happen to John Oliver or the rest of them; told me what window to rap upon; (showed me how long the knife appeared to be), could not say what kind of knife it was; I formed no opinion at the time, as to what kind of knife it was; it looked like a butcher knife; I never saw the knife before nor since; I did not hear Adlington say anything about a knife; nor did not see him at any time with a knife; saw no other persons have anything but penknives; saw no person strike Adlington at any time during the evening; heard no one use any insulting remarks towards Adlington; I went for Doctor Cowden; I returned before he came; I was present a little while when he was examining Cunningham; saw him put his bowels in; I think John L. Jones was holding the light; there was some one else there, but I don't know who it was.

By the Court.—I remained in the room after I was struck a good little while; this scene was after; and at the time I was taking the lamp out. I went to the back of the porch after the fight; came out into the hall and from that to the porch and the kitchen; did not see Adlington strike my brother with a chair; saw some one draw a chair in the south side of the room when I was in the hall; I don't know who it was.

Cross-examined—I lived at that time on the farm, but have lived at the tavern ever since the fight; I did not know Cunningham and Teeples at that time; I went there before dark; I continued there; they came between seven and eight o'clock; I judged by the way they talked that they came from New Castle; I don't know what they came for; Cunningham was drunk when he came; saw no whisky in a bottle; I don't know that they had whisky; think I heard Cunningham ask if Teeples would take a drink; Teeples told Cunningham to get on his coat, and he would walk him round a square or two; don't know where they went, was gone one hour and a half; I missed their coming back, but not what time it was; they got oysters; Cunningham swore he could lick that d—d landlord or any other d—d landlord; he could be coaxed but not drove; he considered himself insulted; pushed their oysters back and said he could not eat them with a good conscience; he had been drinking toasts, and John Oliver told him there was enough of that; this is the way the quarrel commenced at that time; the toasts were drank in the sitting room; it was the loud talk that John objected to; I know, of my own knowledge, that John said he would not have vulgarity in conversation when there was ladies present; he said he would not be taken to in that way, if it was the landlord's way of talking; Cunningham was violent, enraged, angry; he repeated his banter frequently, two or three times; I think it was before this he asked Teeples to take a drink; they were not in the sitting room more than fifteen minutes after they eat their oysters before they took their walk; he used these banters often while in the room; I went out and told my brother he had better be on his guard, on account of the way Cunningham was talking; I thought he was going to pitch on him from the way he was talking; there was some ladies there; when they came back I heard them apologizing to John Oliver on the pavement; they came into the dancing room; Cunningham danced one set; was on the floor about fifteen minutes; Teeples was in the parlor with papers on his knee, by the fire; saw Cunningham play the fiddle after he had danced; think it was a waltz or round dance; this was fifteen or twenty minutes after he danced; I walked through the room; I heard him playing the fiddle; the next place I saw him was in the fight; don't know how long afterwards; I was up stairs when the fight commenced; Mrs. Weller, Miss Weimer, Lafayette Shaffer, Miss Piles and myself. When I went down I saw the rush from the bar-room; the first thing I saw was Fred. Bowder getting up or going down, don't know which. There were a good many in the room, and there was a great deal of noise and excitement; it was not very long after Fred. Bowder got up when I took the lamp out; I think I was out of the room once, and saw Mrs. Adlington on the stairs; she inquired if John was in the field; think this was about the winding up of the fight; Teeples drew the first chair; after this, when I was in the hall, I saw a chair drawn by some one; don't know who was fighting at that time; it was about a half a minute after I saw John Oliver take Teeples by the wrist that the second chair was raised; think there were one or two with Teeples, when I went out for water; Henry Bowder was one of them; I had the glass in my hands during the fight; some one took the tumbler from me for fear I would throw it; I must have gone into the bar-room for another tumbler to get water for Teeples; I was in the kitchen when Adlington had John in there; I was the first one after the doctor; I was examined before the inquest; believe Adlington told me to run for the doctor, that John Oliver would die. I think I told the doctor that John was badly hurt, and others were nearly killed. I went and fetched a candle to see what was done; found Cunningham sitting in the corner; the doctor was in the room at this time with Teeples; I might be mistaken, but I saw it plain enough to think it was a knife; saw a bloody stick at my father's house; could not mistake the stick for the knife; it is there yet at Oliver's house; it is about the same length of the knife, it is loaded with lead at the end, there was not a drop of liquor in me before the fight; I drank some afterwards; my brother's head was bleeding profusely when I saw him in the kitchen; I borrowed a penknife on that evening from George Pringle; had an old one of my own, don't know what I wanted it for; had it before the fight commenced, and before Cunningham and Teeples came there; had it two or three days; Adlington hauled a load of coal with John Oliver's team from our bank the next day after the fight; brought it in about ten o'clock in the morning.

John P. Oliver, sworn—I live in Portersville and keep a public house; had a ball on the night of the 24th of December last; there were a great many there; don't remember all; Henry Bowder, Sydney Oliver, John L. Jones, Wm. Kirker, Mr. Teeples, Sydney Cunningham, Fred. Bowder, Dunwiddie Marshall, Uriah McClarran, John Adlington, and a number of others; there were also a number of ladies there; Cunningham and Teeples came about seven or eight o'clock; think I saw them in my sitting-room, they did not call to stay all night; I had not been acquainted with them before this; Henry Bowder came into the bar room and told me to come in and stop them from blackguarding; I went into the parlor and Cunningham pulled out a bottle and passed it around; they commenced blackguarding and I stopped them; told them I would not allow anything of the kind in my house; Cunningham said he would not take that, and pulled off his coat and both of them pitched at me, when I retired from the room; on the pavement I met Adlington; told him we had a fuss in there, and that probably they might pitch onto me again.

Mr. Thompson, on behalf of defendant, objected to any conversation between witness and defendant at this time, as being no part of the res gestae. The Commonwealth was ordered to put the proposition in writing.

The Commonwealth proposed asking the witness who had related the difficulty that had occurred in the sitting room, to Adlington—what he replied to it, as showing that it was a part of the entire transaction on investigation—a part of the res gestae of the case.

The Court said they would receive the evidence and note an exception.

Witness resumed—Adlington lives across the street from my house; I met him on the pavement; I told him they might pitch on to me again; he had better leave his knife at home; he said he had no knife with him.

Mr. McCarthy, for defendant objected to the evidence of whether the defendant had been in the habit of carrying a knife previous to this time, as tending to establish a character of defendant before a door was opened for that purpose.

The Court admitted the testimony.

Witness resumed—I saw him have a knife in my stable, long about harvest time; think I have seen it once since; same knife; I think I saw it again sometime in December, in the hall in my house; don't know on what occasion; probably not more than a week before the difficulty; I think he was showing it to some man from New Castle, who was stopping at my house; don't know his name; these are the only times that I have seen it; he carried it in his bosom; did not observe how he carried it; he put it back each time where he pulled it from; it was a two-edged blade about six inches long; about an inch or an inch and a quarter broad in the blade; a wooden handle; it was a common butcher knife; this is the knife I referred to when I told him not to bring his knife; we were walking toward the hall door, and both of us went in.

Adjourned till 2 o'clock P. M.

[The remainder of Tuesday's proceedings will appear in to-morrow's GAZETTE.]

COURT REPORTS.

Oyer and Terminer, &c.

Before Hon. James P. Sterrett.

This Court met on Wednesday morning at the usual hour, nine o'clock, and proceeded with jury trials.

THE M'CLURE TOWNSHIP CASE.

The trial of Terence Brady for an aggravated assault and battery upon John Kelley, was resumed, and resulted in a conviction.

Brady was next tried on a similar indictment, found on the oath of John Madden. These were the principal parties concerned in the row at Hussey's tavern in McClure township, on the night of the 14th of January last, during which it was alleged that Brady used the knife. In this case the jury found a verdict of guilty of simple assault and battery.

In the first case, Kelley prosecutor, the Court sentenced Brady to pay a fine of $100, and to undergo two months imprisonment in the jail, and in the other, Madden prosecutor, to pay a fine of thirty dollars, and to undergo one month imprisonment—the last sentence to take after the expiration of the first.

STEALING HIS OWN PROPERTY.

James McGovern, steamboat owner, appeared as defendant in an indictment for larceny, Albert Young prosecutor. It appears that two barges or flats belonging to Mr. McGovern went adrift in the Ohio river, and were caught and tied up by the prosecutor at McKee's rock's. Seeing the boats in that locality, and finding no one to offer objection, Mr. G. took them away, with the lines attached, which it seems were the property of Young, and hence the prosecution. The jury found a verdict of guilty and recommended defendant to the mercy of the Court. Motion for a new trial entered.

SELLING WITHOUT LICENSE.

George Snyder was indicted for selling liquor without license in Penn township, on oath of John S. Stotler, Constable. Verdict guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of thirty dollars and the costs.

BALTZELL-STRENG SHOOTING CASE.

Jacob Baltzell was arraigned on two indictments for feloniously shooting his wife Rosa and his father-in-law, Henry Streng, at the house of the latter, corner of Beaver street and Taylor avenue, second ward of Allegheny City, on the evening of the 31st of January last. The circumstances of this case will be remembered, inasmuch as they were rather extensively published. Mr. Streng was dangerously wounded in the chest, and for a time his life was despaired of. The defendant was arrested on the evening of the occurrence and has been in jail since. Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and briefly stated the circumstances. The defendant had clandestinely married Miss Rosa A. Streng, he residing at Wheeling, and she with her parents in Allegheny. On the evening stated he visited the house of her parents for the ostensible purpose of taking her to Wheeling. Josiah Cohen, Esq., is assisting in the prosecution.

Rosa A. Baltzell testified she was not quite eighteen; that she became the wife of defendant in June last; that he came to the house of her parents, and to the room of her mother, where she (witness) was lying sick, on the evening of January 3d; he came to the bed and kissed her; she asked her little sister, eight years of age, to ask her mother to get her a blanket; Baltzell offered to get it, but witness told him she could not tell him where to get one; Baltzell then told the little girl to go for her mother, who came, got the blanket, warmed it, and placed it about the witness' feet; defendant desired to arrange the blanket, but the mother refused to permit him; then some conversation took place about preparing something to eat, witness stating that she desired nothing, and her mother insisting upon preparing something, and going down stairs for that purpose. Baltzell then said, "Why does your mother hate me?" Witness replied, "Jake, she don't hate you." Baltzell said, "Yes she does." "No she don't," said witness. "You lie," said Baltzell. "Jake, I never told you a lie," said witness. "Posey, you know you're lying now," said Baltzell, and after adding, "You'll never tell another," drew from his breast a pistol. Witness caught him by the left arm, and as he turned round in retaining her hold she was pulled out of bed and the blanket disengaged from her feet. She ran to the door of the room, which was partly open, and as she was in the act of passing out, he discharged the pistol at her, the ball passing through her clothing. She saw him approaching her and turned to go down the stairs, and seeing her father in the act of coming up, (his attention having been attracted by the report of the pistol) she leaped down into his arms, and as she did so Baltzell fired a second shot, the ball taking effect in her left shoulder, inflicting a flesh wound. Her father took her into the dining room, and she managed to conceal herself in a closet under a stairway, and whilst there she heard two other shots, her mother crying murder, and saw Baltzell pass by the door of the closet, which was not entirely closed, going towards the dining room, back.

The witness was cross-examined by Mr. Swartzwelder, counsel for the defence—Was married to Baltzell at Waterloo, near Reno, in the oil regions, by a magistrate, in June, 1866; her parents were residing in Reno at the time; became acquainted with Baltzell in 1865; in August, after their marriage she visited Baltzell, at his mother's, in Wheeling, and remained there two weeks; when she returned to Reno, her parents had removed to Allegheny; she never lived with him as his wife, except at Wheeling, and her parents were not apprized of their marriage until about Christmas last; she had not exactly refused, but had not consented to go and live with him at Wheeling.

Re-direct—Baltzell said he was a very desperate man when he became excited; said if he could not enjoy life with witness, no other one should; when Baltzell came he asked why she had not answered his letter, and she replied that she had no time when she received it, and had been sick; he said this was no excuse.

Cross-examined—A week before Christmas do not recollect of Baltzell asking about her being at a ball; kept up a correspondence, Baltzell addressing her by her by her maiden name until after the marriage was made known to her parents; her father seeing a letter addressed to her as Rosa Baltzell, suggested that her letters be addressed as formerly until she went to live with her husband; she did not desire to go to Wheeling to live with him.

By Mr. Morrison, of counsel for the defense—When did your mother first know of your marriage?

Mr. Marshall objected, and said the counsel could not complain of liberality so far in the course of the examination of the witness. Objection sustained.

Being asked as to the condition of her husband, witness said he appeared to act perfectly natural.

Re-direct—I was at the Opera House twice and also at a ball. After our marriage Baltzell desired me to enjoy life the same as if we were not married.

Dr. Hamilton, of Allegheny, testified—Was called to examine Mr. Streng and his daughter. The latter had a wound in the left shoulder; a gun shot wound; attended her for some two weeks. Mr. Streng was wounded in the chest; right side; the ball entering between two and three inches from the center of the breast, passing through the cavity and coming out at the arm-pit. The wound was of a dangerous character, and the mortality of such during the war was about seventy-three per cent, according to the report of the Surgeon General. The wound upon the daughter was not necessarily dangerous.

Mrs. Streng was next called—Baltzell desired to adjust the blanket about Rosa's feet, and insisted on doing so, but witness told him it was her business and not his. Had no other conversation with him, except to ask him about his mother and sister, who he said were very poorly.

Henry Streng, sworn—Am the father of Rosa; came home between three and four o'clock; my wife told me Baltzell was up stairs. As I went to go into a room where Mr. Moses was playing the piano for the children, I heard a jump and scream and then a pistol shot up stairs; went to the stairs, caught my Rosa in my arms, and handed her over to my wife; saw Baltzell coming down the stairs, and asked him, "My God, Jake, what are you doing?" He made no reply, passed me, and drew a pistol. I got a chair and held it in front of me, but he must have pushed it aside and fired, the ball going in my breast. My wife then came and Baltzell fired the pistol at her. I fell down on the kitchen floor, and lay until my little boy came to me. A man came and I told him there was a young man trying to kill us all.

Officer Campbell sworn—[Pistol produced]—This was taken from the defendant; he was arrested by a citizen. There was a smell of powder about it; had no caps on, and two loads were in it. [It is a six barreled navy revolver.] The citizen who arrested Baltzell raised the pistol to strike me, not knowing that I was an officer and supposing I was a friend of Baltzell.

Cross-Examined—The citizen who arrested him was William Calhoun; Baltzell pointed the pistol at me. He threw up his hands and said he would surrender. Calhoun took the pistol out of his hand.

Mr. Bromley testified that he went into Streng's house, and saw the defendant pass out the back way with a pistol in his hand; he had no hat on; he passed down an alley to Monterey street, and thence to the Commons, where he was arrested.

Cross-examined—Defendant looked pretty hard—illustrated, in a high state of excitement.

Mr. Marshall stated he had asked no questions as to the condition of the defendant at the time, having avoided going into that question until it was raised, when they would call witnesses on the subject. While he did not object to the cross-examination, he did not wish it confounded with the examination in chief.

Louis Streng, aged fourteen years, testified that when he heard the shooting he jumped through a window, breaking four panes of glass, and fell into the cellar window; saw defendant with a pistol in his hand; assisted his father to the Morgan House, and went back to look for Rosa; got a candle and found her in the closet. At the time the witness saw defendant with the pistol it seemed that he (the defendant) was then passing into the front hall door, and it would seem entering the house the second time. This corroborated the testimony of Rosa, his wife, who says she saw him pass the door of the closet where she had concealed herself. He was evidently in pursuit of her, perhaps to carry out his bloody intent.

Dr. Buchanan was called and corroborated the testimony of Dr. Hamilton, after which the Court adjourned till Thursday at nine o'clock.

Common Pleas Court.

Before Hon. E. H. Stowe.

R. H. Lewis vs. James McGovern and Jas. Rees, Jr., owners of the steamboat "Little Jim Reese." Before reported. The jury found a verdict in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $959 68.

The Rochester and Oleapolis Oil Company vs J. H. Hughey. Before reported. Verdict for the defendant.

Henry Herschauser vs. John Kleinlein. Plaintiff is a cattle dealer, and defendant lives in the vicinity of East Liberty. It was an action for defamatory words expressed in German, the plaintiff averring that the defendant said, "You (plaintiff) stole a bull from my (defendant's) field and slaughtered him; I (defendant) can prove it by two men." Verdict for six cents damages.

District Court.—Before Hon. Moses Hampton. Daniel Sweeney vs. N. J. Bigley Before reported. This case went to the jury about noon Wednesday, and were directed to seal their verdict, the Court adjourning until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Book Notices.

THE TEXAS ALMANAC, for 1867, is a volume of 350 pages—published by W. Richardson & Co., of Galveston, Texas. It is much the best thing in its way so far attempted in this country. It embodies a vast amount of accurate information concerning Texas, which is not accessible elsewhere. Whoever wants to be posted in regard to that State should buy it. For sale by Henry Miner.

THE TEMPERANCE MELODIST, containing Glees, Songs and Pieces for use of the various temperance organizations. By Stephen Hubbard. Boston: John P. Jewett. For sale at Pittsburgh by Kay & Co.

THE REV. MR. SOURBALL'S EUROPEAN TOUR, or the recreations of a City Parson. By Horace Cope. Philadelphia: Duffield Ashmead. For sale at Pittsburgh by John W. Pittock.

To be Mended.—We conclude that our streets, some of which are shockingly in need of "fixing," will very shortly be thoroughly repaired. The bad ways of the city, near the intersection of Canal and Liberty streets at all events have had the attention of one of the Street Committee very forcibly called to their condition. A few evenings since a member of the Committee, residing in the Ninth ward, put his foot in it at the point mentioned, and nearly dislocated his ankle in one of the pitholes thereabouts. Hence we naturally infer that our streets will be better henceforth than hitherto.

Disorderly.—James Quinn and James McDowell were very drunk and disorderly in the Allegheny Diamond on Tuesday, and they were accordingly arrested, though not without some difficulty, and taken to the lock-up by officer Sprague. They were fined $2 each yesterday morning.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, March 13, 1867.

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 134⅛; 1881 bonds, 109; Five Twenties, old, 109¼; Five Twenties, '65, 107⅜; do new, 106⅝; Seven Thirties, 105⅝. Michigan Southern Railroad, 72⅝; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 81¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 95⅜; Erie, 58⅜; Chicago and Northwestern, 34⅜; do preferred, 63; New York Central, 102⅜; Chicago and Rock Island, 95; Gregory, 117⅜; Quartz Mill, 4.

—The Secretary of the Treasury having decided that the new tariff on wool and woollens will not be levied on goods in bond entered before the 2d of March, the process of withdrawal will not be so rapid as early in last week.

—The adjournment of the Thirty-ninth Congress, after making but a single change of $50,000,000 in the currency and funding laws, and only a partial change in the tariff, has left an improved confidence that the trade and finances of the spring and summer will work kindly and steadily, and this feeling will be further strengthened, if, as now seems probable, one or more of the Southern States should set the example of reconstructing their government under the recent act of Congress.

—Throughout the West a good demand for money is reported; but trade in the general markets is improving, and this has the effect of strengthening confidence among capitalists, while the distrust which prevailed a few weeks ago has largely disappeared. At Chicago the banks report an increased demand for money, which is traceable to a growing speculative feeling in the leading produce markets, and a close scrutiny of names is observed to the exclusion of those of inferior grades. Exchange on the East is in abundant supply, although the counter rates remain at par buying, and 1-10 premium selling.

—The professional speculators for an advance were in February cleaned out, and have neither confidence in themselves or money to back their opinion if they had the latter. The market is also without public support, the class of speculators known as the "public" having as much as it can do to pay rents, store expenses, home bills, and to keep from protest on their regular business. Prudent people also see that Secretary McCulloch means contraction, and has the power to carry out his opinions, and are steadily getting out of debt and avoiding new engagements. "Shrinkage" of assets is and must be the order of the day, until the National debt is funded and specie payments assured the clamor of speculators to the contrary notwithstanding. A new crop of cotton, grain, and provisions means lower prices of these articles at an early day and loss of millions of debts made by parties whose assets will not pay more than half their debts. It is these facts which make speculations for an advance extra hazardous, and sure to be fatal to those who make them. In the reduction of the volume of the currency sure to be shown in 1867 all market prices must shrink, and intrinsic values lose much of their power in arresting the decline in commodities, and in stocks especially. Those who are now piled up in Wall street as never before on speculation, by parties who bring to put up 10 per cent margin on 1,000 shares, who have no more idea of holding 100 shares as an investment than they have of paying the National debt. Upon a further advancing currency these hypothecated stocks will, in some unexpected moments, be forced to sale, and a panic be produced under which margins will disappear, and large differences be left against their holders. In short, under contraction, prices of stocks will go down as they rose during expansion, by sharp spasms, which will sweep off the profits of the past two years as rapidly as they were made.—N. Y. Tribune.

PITTSBU[illegible]ARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE [illegible] GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, [illegible] 13, 1867.

There are no new characteristics in the produce markets worthy of special notice. The demand for most of the leading commodities is moderately active, though there is yet plenty of room for improvement, while in values there are no material changes.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm, the supply in this market being almost exhausted, but the demand is light. We continue to quote at $2,60 for No. 1 Spring, and $2,80 for prime Red Winter. Barley is in tight supply, and with a fair demand, prime No. 1 Spring sells readily at $1. Oats quiet and unchanged—sales in store at 52 to 53. Rye is in demand at $1,30. Corn is dull; may be quoted at 68 to 70, on wharf and track.

FLOUR—There is a fair local demand, and while the market is steady prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote at $12 to $12,50 for good to choice Spring Wheat brands; $13,50 to $14,50 for Winter Wheat, and $16 to $17 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $7,25 to $7,50, and Buckwheat at $6,50 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in fair jobbing demand and steady with regular sales at 10 for Shoulders; 11½ for Ribbed Sides; and 15 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 12½ to 13, in tierces, and the usual advance in kegs. Mess Pork, $21 to $21,50.

SEEDS—There is a very good demand for Clover Seed, and we can report sales at $8,50, to the trade and $9, in a retail way. Timothy is quiet but steady at $3 to $3,25. Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2,85, and but little offering.

BUTTER—There is an improved demand for strictly prime fresh Roll Butter, but inferior and common is unsaleable almost at any price. We can report sales of the former at 30 to 32.

EGGS—The supply keeps up with the demand, and prices are maintained, and that is about at—22.

HAY—There is rather more inquiry for strictly prime baled Hay, and we now quote at $23 to $24 per ton. Common is very dull.

APPLES—Dull but unchanged. Regular sales in store at $3 to $3,50 for good to prime, and $4 for choice.

POTATOES—No improvement to note in the demand, and prices remain unchanged, at 75 to 80 per bush.

BEANS—Steady, with regular sales at $2,50 to $2,75 per bushel, for good to prime white.

ASHES—Sale of 15 tons Common Soda Ash at 5¾, and 10 tons Pearls at 13.

FISH—Sales of 20 half bbls Lake Herring at $1,25, and 10 half barrels White Fish at $8,50.

CHEESE—Sales of Hamburg at 18.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, March 13, 1867.

CRUDE—The Crude market was again less active to-day, the sales all told only reaching six thousand barrels, against thirty-three thousand barrels yesterday, while, as regards prices, there is no change, apparently, one way or the other. Sale of 2000 bbls, on the spot, at 5¾; 1000 do do at 6; 1000 to arrive, at 6, and 2000 bbls (40 to 47 gravity) to be delivered between the 20th of March and the 20th of April, at 6. From the above, it will be seen that quotations for spot oil, may be fairly given at 5¾ to 6, in bulk and barrels returned, and 11 to 11¼, packages included. We have no late news from Oil City, but it is safe to presume that the market there is unchanged.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was again quiet to-day, but a single sale reported, one thousand barrels standard white, for April delivery in Philadelphia, at 26¾, and 28 appears to be the best offer for August and September—standard white. Prime light straw to white, may be quoted nominally, in the absence of sales, at 19½ to 20, on board cars here, and 25 to 25½, delivered in Philadelphia. For free oil the demand is light, being restricted entirely to supplying the wants of retail or jobbing trade. Standard brands are offering at 40.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro.	5000	J. Gallagher	3100
Waring & King	55	McKenna & Co.	55

Total.........5210

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose steadily at this point until yesterday afternoon, when it commenced to recede, and it was still receding slowly last evening, with scant twenty-four feet in the channel by the Allegheny marks. The weather yesterday was cloudy and raw, with indications of snow.

There was a fair degree of activity manifested at the levee yesterday, the shipments, in the aggregate, being rather larger than usual, while the receipts were light, the Parkersburg packet being the only arrival.

The Great Republic is about completed, and, as already noticed, she will be thrown open to visitors on Friday, and take her departure for New Orleans on Saturday. The indications now are that she will be full of passengers.

At no time, perhaps, during the past five years, has the coal business been so dull and depressed as at present. The lower end of the landing is crowded with splendid and powerful towboats, all idle, and the river has been, and is now, in excellent condition, but there is no coal going forward of any consequence. The down river markets are all reported glutted, so that there is no inducement for our coal men to be in a hurry and, besides, there is little or no coal here. As noted the other day, the diggers, generally, have gone to work again—whether at the old rates or a reduction, we are not at this writing able to state.

Business continues dull in the Allegheny river trade, and we doubt if the packets, notwithstanding, there are now but three of them, are realizing much above their expenses. The depression in the oil trade has a tendency to cripple steamboats, on this stream, restricting both travel and freight. It is to be hoped however, that things will take a change for the better.

The Monongahela river boats, like the Allegheny river boats, are not making much above expenses, and it is doubtful whether they are even doing that. The Peoples' (new line) has drawn one of their boats off the track for the present.

The Glendale left for St. Louis yesterday afternoon with one of the best trips of the season, having all the freight she could take, and full of people. Capt. Mellon informed us that they had more passengers engaged below. The Argosy left for Cincinnati with a fair trip, and, as usual, had a large number of wagons for New Orleans.

There has been no arrivals from below since our last report, and, we believe, there are no boats due for the next two days. The Robt. Moore, from Portsmouth, is due here to-day.

We notice that several of our down river exchanges report the Friendship as having left Pittsburgh for St. Louis. Although it is a matter of no great consequence, we can state that the aforesaid steamer has not left here yet, at least there was no appearance of our leaving yesterday afternoon.

The America, Capt. Golding, will now fill out with Cincinnati and Louisville freight, and leave for Nashville on Saturday, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The Savanna, Capt. McGowan, will be ready to take her departure for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi to-morrow or next day.

The Sherman, Capt. Baker, is announced to leave for St. Louis on Saturday, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The Sherman is the regular line boat.

The Maggie Hays left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday evening, and the Importer was advertised to follow on Tuesday.

The Nashville Gazette of Friday says: The Columbia, in descending yesterday, met with a slight accident, her chimneys colliding with the suspension bridge, notwithstanding the fact that she had them lowered. The damage is trifling.

The Portsmouth (Ohio) Republican is responsible for the following:

There are rumors of a contemplated race between the Bostona and Fleetwood, to take place some time in May, for $10,000 a side. The boats are to run from Cincinnati to this point, without stopping. There is much speculation—particularly among the betting fraternity—as to the speed of the two boats; and if the race does come off, it is evident that it will be the most exciting affair that ever took place on any river. The knowing ones seem to think that the running that has taken place thus far is but a trotting over the course—a mere passing of the ball—preparatory to the grand match in May. We bespeak a passage on the rudder of the slowest boat.

One-eight of the Henry Ames was recently purchased by T. W. Cloney, of Jefferson City, for $5,000.

Arrangements are completed to run four boats regularly between St. Louis and Vicksburg—the Rubicon, Kate Kinney, Paragon and Welcome, or Albert Pearce. A boat will leave every Wednesday and Saturday.

Capt. Dryden telegraphs from Jeffersonville, under date of Monday evening, as follows: The river is rising slowly, with thirty-two feet over the falls, making twelve inches above the last rise. It is now raining hard, with the mercury at forty-two degrees above zero. The wind is from the northwest. The Robert Burns and Ezra Porter passed up. The towboat Alps, with a heavy tow of coal, passed down.

The St. Louis Republican, in view of the fact that the Supervising Inspector at that port has directed that none but the "American valve" shall be used, says:

The leading question asked by steamboatmen yesterday, in referring to the "lock-up" question, was "what per cent does he get?" That a man like this Supervising Inspector, who does not know one end of a steamboat from the other, in fact don't know really whether a valve should be on the boilers or on the chambermaids, should, on his own authority, proceed to decide so important a question as to the best valve to be used, is, to say the least of it, the very height of impudence.

Regret at the untimely and cruel fate of A. C. Hopkins seems to be universal through the city and along the rivers. He died, says the St. Louis Democrat, of the 8th, at five o'clock yesterday morning, the skill of the doctors and the tears of his friends being unavailing to restore him. Capt. Hopkins was many years engaged in the profession of the river.

He commanded the Asa Wilgus in the Missouri some years ago. Becoming interested in the Scotland, and running her in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade, he was detained within the bounds of the Southern Confederacy, ran his boat while in the South, and lost her in, we believe, Yazoo river by fire. He came here, and latterly commanded the steamer White Cloud, receiving a salary of $5,000 per year.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday:

Mr. Alex. Havlin, of the Clifton, has retired from that steamer, and accepted a position on the Northern Line Packet, Hawkeye State. Mr. G. W. Hunter succeeds Mr. Havlin in the office of the Clifton. Mr. J. H. Stratton, late of the Cottage No. 2, has taken charge of the office of the Mollie Norton, Col. J. L. Vance being confined to his room by sickness. The Nymph No. 2 will commence loading for the Missouri river, under command of Capt. U. B. Fiersel. The suit of Geo. L. Johnston & Co. vs. Capt. Alf. Stein, of the P. W. Strader, was decided by 'Squire Marchant on Saturday afternoon, Messrs. Geo. L. Johnston & Co. receiving twenty-five dollars, and Captain Stein paying the costs. The Rebecca, Capt. C. H. Booth, leaves for Pittsburgh to-morrow evening. The Maggie Hays, Capt. D. L. Hendrickson, left last evening for Pittsburgh. She will hereafter leave for Pittsburgh every Monday instead of Tuesday. The Kate Robinson, Capt. R. Robinson, has given up her trip to Pittsburgh, and will load in turn for St. Louis.

River Telegrams.

LOUISVILLE, March 13.—The river rose ten inches in the past twenty-four hours ending 7 P. M., and is rising five-eighths of an inch per hour. A large rise is reported coming from above. The Leonora No. 2 left for Memphis. The weather has suddenly turned intensely cold.

CAIRO, March 13.—Weather cloudy and very cold all day; snowed a little. Mercury 17 degrees this evening and falling. The river rose four inches in the past twenty-four hours. Business dull. Arrived—Norman, from Memphis for Louisville.

MEMPHIS, March 13.—Weather cold. A severe snow storm set in at noon and continued several hours. The river is rising slowly. People living along the Mississippi are suffering from the overflow. Business is stagnant.
